

AROUND THE CITY

LOCAL (From Thursday's Daily) The ladies of the Rebecca Lodge are planning a Halloween ball to be given on Wednesday, October 28th, in Emma's Hall.

The city of Calgary is building a civic mortuary 225x25 feet, at a cost of $2,965. In the basement space is being provided for 80 caskets. A chapel in which funeral services may be held is also being constructed.

A new gravel plant. The Edmonton Stone Crushing Co., the members of which are Messrs. J. M. and M. J. M. are making arrangements for the establishment of a stone crushing and gravel washing plant on River lot 29 on the property of John Milner and adjoining the east end of the city.

Building new feeders. The city electrical department is busy engaged at present in placing the new feeders in position for the gas power plant which is expected to be ready for operation by the middle of October.

Homesteaders moving. Three separate parties with their outfits left the Immigration Hall today to take up homesteads west and northwest of Edmonton.

Good class of settlers. The class of immigrants who are coming to the city this year are much better than in former years. This is seen in the general appearance of the people, their demeanor at the Immigration Hall, and the evident desire they have to keep the premises clean and to obey laws.

Centre of an empire. Another paper across the line, the Bulletin Star, published in Sault Ste. Marie, Wash., is helping to disseminate information regarding Edmonton and the Edmonton district.

Rich gold discovery. There returned to the city yesterday the well known prospector, who has been prospecting for gold in the north-west of the city for the past few months.

Damages from fire. At the District Court Wednesday an interesting action for damages alleged to be caused by fire set by the defendant on a farm near Edmonton was taken up for trial.

Ready for fall fair. Arrangements were practically completed last evening for the fall exhibition to be held in the Thistle rink from October 17th to 21st.

Will bore for gas. The preliminary work in connection with the gas boring operations to be carried on on Ross flats this fall by Donald Ross and his associates, was commenced this morning.

Ready for the fair. According to present indications the Edmonton Agricultural Exhibition to be held in the Thistle rink from October 17th to 21st is promising to be a huge success.
