Malta, Oct. 9-A majority of the Turkish troops in Tripoli have fled towards the Tunisian frontier, according to one report here.

Many Turkish prisoners, influential residents of Tripoli, whose presence the Italian authorities believed would be dangerous, have arrived here. The prisoners include the acting and lientenant governors and other Tripolitan officials They assert that the Turkish troops and Arabs are concentrating about 12 miles behind Tripuli and preparing for resistance.

The quick landing of blue jackers was largely due to the advice of the German consul, and to Arab leaders, because the mob had begun to suck certain quarters of the town, giving its attention particularly to the residences of Turkish officers and the palace. It was feared that the European quarter might also be sacked. Even though the Arabs had heised the white flag and apparently had shown themselves to be favorable to talian occupation the afternoon of threatening an attack upon the blue jackets' outposts. Capt. ### The New Cabinet's Oath Of Secrecy And Loyalty

Must Not Divulge Proceedings Without Permission Of The King-The Pledge For All New Privy Councillors.

Refere becoming members of he Cabinet Council, it will be necessary for Mr. Borden, as well as for those of his colleagues who have not been members of previous Dominion cabinets, to be sworn in as members of his Majesty's Privy Council for Canada, on occasion they will each be required to take the oath, given below. This oath is the same, with the necessary alterations regarding Canada, ancient oath in quaint form taken by the Privy Councillors o Creat Britain for many centuries. It binds the councillor not to dishappens in the cabinet, touching any other councillor, until the Kirg has given his authority for such revolution. On several occasions this permission has been asked in Great Britain by ministers resigning their positions in the cabinet owing to disagreement with their colleagues on important questions of policy. In Canada, in such a case, the Governor General, as representing His Majesty, would have to give his consent, but the Governor General is not mentioned
