POSTON, Jan. 26.—While their gaunt faces and emaciated bodies testifying to the horrors through which they had passed while clinging to their sinking ship for days, subsisting on condensed milk and raw meat, six men of the Nova Scotia schooner, Helen Shafter, were brought into port to-night on board the fishing schooner Isola and Phoebe. The men were picked up 40 miles west of Seal Island, Friday last and are—Captain, Isaac L. Hopkins, Halifax; W. Green, mate; Geo. Harpell, cook; and Stephen Verge, Wm. McGrath, Bruce Austin, seamen. Capt. Hopkins left Port Hastings early in January with 190,000 feet of lumber for this city, but the weather forced the vessel to make Port Shelbourne, where she left on the 15th. When one day out, the schooner sprang a leak, and during a gale was thrown on her beam-ends, when it became necessary to cut the spars out to get her on an even keel. The vessel was owned in Annapolis.
