Last year's allround champion—Freddie Phelan—has en-tered for the Hurdles, 100 and 220 yards, High Jump, 1-4 and 1-2 mile, so that it is/quite apparent he is by no means anxious to relinquish his tedly the Hayward Trophy has proven a great incentive as this morning all the secretaries of the various clubs were about town rounding up competitors to wear their respective colours. One athlete who is a member of three associations has as yet been unable to make up his mind which he will wear and has asked time to consider.

HIGHLAND GAMES.

Albert Martin and Geralde Halley having tied in the aggregate of points, the Committee in charge have decided that a 100 yards' dash between the two shall decide the Victor Luorum prize. The race will be run this ompetitors thought that the points were awarded as last year, viz:—3 points for first, two for second, and one for third, but the Committee decided otherwise and awarded two points for first, one for second, while third places were disregarded. On the old scale, Martin, Halley and Butler would have tied with six points each, but as it stands at present Butler is eliminated, which is rather hard luck on him considering that he was severely handicapped in each event he entered.
