Marks Players in Great Melodrama

Black Flag," To Be played In Casino To-Night.

Arlie Marks players offer to the oing public to-night the play they have waited years to see, "The Black Flag," a wondertelo-dramatic offering with a of deep heart interest and conmany startling climaxes. With strong aggregation of dramatic it goes without saying that this production will receive correct etation. See your popular fav-Arlie Marks, in a new roie, a der distinctly different from ag she has yet played. You will dsay Perrin in one of his most parts—he also guarantees a od laughs, and as a comedian well aware of his capabilities. bb Chamberlain, who scored hit in "A Good For Nothing nd," will be seen in this bill in great role. Paul Brady and smund both have splendid in "The Black Flag," in fact mber of the cast has a disole all its own. Special attenbe given to the scenic equipgive the bill the true atmosthat is necessary.
