$100,000 for the Erection of the G. T. R. Sheps—Bonus and Exemption from Taxes for Ten Years. Brantogro, Ont., Aug. 27.—A special meeting of the City Council was held last night to consider the granting of a bonus to the Grand Trunk Railway Company to secure the erection of the proposed new car secure the erection of the proposed new car shops in this place. After the matter had been duly discussed by members present it was recommended that the following offer be made the G. T. R. Company to secure the shops: $100,000 cash and total exemption from taxes for ten years, the railway company to expend $75,000 in additional bufulings and land, and agree to employ continuously not less than 500 men each year, unless in times of strikes or acts of Provindence; and in the event of the works being removed in whole or part at any future time they shall refund the whole of the cash bonus to the city. A deputation was an bonus to the city. A deputation was appointed to wait on Sir Henry Tyler and have a consultation on the above terms. THEY SEE NO DANGER.

Cattle Dealers and Farmers Are Alarmed, But the Ministers Are Supremely Indifferent. OTTAWA, Aug. 27.—Hon. Mr. Abbott's announcement in the Senate that it was probable that the Government would admit American cattle for slaughter in Can, ada has raised a storm of indignation among certain cattle dealers. A deputation consisting of M. F. Frankland, J. Dunn, I. Crawford. Toronto: accompanied by consisting of M. F. Frankland, J. Dunn, I. Crawford, Toronto; accompanied by Messrs. Sproule, Wood (Westmoreland), Henderson, Burnham, Carpenter, and other M. P.s.waited on Hon. Mr. Abbott and Hon. Mr. Carling this morning to protest against it. They pointed out in the strongest way that this action would completely desiroy the cattle trade with Great Britain, for that country would at once compel Canadian cattle to submit to quarantine. Even the privileges now granted to Americans to ship cattle through Canada from Windsor to the Suspension Bridge caused Canadian cattle to be suspected in the English market. The Ministers were disposed to think that no danger was involved if proper precautions were observed, but after listening to the arguments of the deputation said they would again consider the wetter.
