THE WAR IN CUBA.

—Great preparations are in progress around the City Hall for the forthcoming flower show. Carpenters are busy erecting booths. The 'mums will be located in the Japanese booth, which will be presided over by ladies in Japanese costume. Another large booth will be devoted to carnations and roses, and the ladies in charge will also be dressed in picturesque costume. There will also be a refreshment booth and cafe chantant. Music has been promised by local bands and the harpers for the promenade concerts. The show begins today and ends Friday.
