AT SPRINGBANK.Delegates of the Canadian Horticultural Society Are Entertained by Members of the London Society.Yesterday the president and directors of the London Horticultural Society entertained the delegates attending the Canadian Horticultural convention. The forenoon was spent in a trolley ride through the city in a special Springbank car, which was profusely decorated with flowers and maple bows. At 11 o'clock the party proceeded to Springbank, a partook of luncheon at the pavilion.
There, surrounded by the green hills and favoring airs of London's favorite resort, the place seemed happily chosen for an outing, especially by florists, whose duties bring them so closely in contact with the beautiful in nature.
After the dinner was over, Mr. R. W.
Rennie, secretary of the London Horticultural Society, acted as toast-master.
The programme was as follows:
"The King," "Our Country," coupled with the name of Very Rev. Dean Innes, Bishop of the North, by Mr. Stevenson, Toronto; "The London Horticultural Society," responded to by Messrs.
Balkwill and Hamilton; "Canadian Horticultural Society," responded to by Mr.
Dunlop, of Toronto; Messrs. Ivey, of Brampton, and Johnston, of Kingston.
Song, by W. J. Lawrence, senior soloist of Central Methodist Church, Toronto.
East, "Our Obedience," replied to by Rev.
Canon Dene, Messrs. Martin and Robinson; "Our City," by Mr. Fred Darch, and Mr. W. Gammage, Ladies, by Mr.
Simmere, of Toronto. At the close all drank to the health of the chairman, Mr.
R. W. Rennie.The best of good feeling prevailed, and a very favorable impression of our city and of the hospitality of the London Horticultural Society was expressed by many of the visitors. Hopeful references were made to the progress of horticulture in Canada. Great progress had been made within the last few years, and there was a marked tendency towards this aesthetic means of improving the home.DARNING HIS SOCKS COST $1.75 A PAIRChicagoan Mails Them to Mother in Fatherland and Had to Pay Duty.Chicago, Aug. 7.—It cost a stout German resident of Chicago $1 to have four pairs of socks darned. He visited his aged mother in Germany a few months ago, and she presented him with a half-dozen pairs of socks she herself had knit. When he returned to the United States he paid no duty on them.
When four pairs were in need of repairs he packed them up and mailed them to his mother. They were darned and returned by parcel post. When they had been opened in the customs office a duty of $1.75 a pair was assessed, and paid under protest.SUICIDE OF A SERENADER.
New York, Aug. 7.—John Hall, a professional singer, cut his throat last night under the window of the young woman he had asked to be his wife, and who had rejected his suit. He had gone to the young woman's house to serenade her, but she ordered him away. He walked a few steps, sang a bar of the song "Because I Love You," and then slashed his throat with a razor. He will probably die.207 Dundas St.We are now located in our new prem-son street, reported the loss of $95 at Springbank yesterday.—Mr. Jesse Welford, of East London, placed his wife's pocketbook for safekeeping in his hip pocket, from growing crops. The Free Press is a good newspaper, and has attained metropolitan size, growing like the great country in which it is published.—Mr. Frank A. Arnold, of Greencastle, Ind., editor and proprietor of the Greencastle Star-Press, is among the Old Boys visiting London. He finds London improving with every

CoolIf You Know How to FEED YOURSELVES.

(Reasons Below.)

Try GRAPE-NUTS.

HOT WEATHER FOOD.The selection of food for hot weather is an important question. We should avoid an excess of fats, cut down the butter ration and indulge more freely in fruits and food easy of digestion.
One meal per day is sufficient during hot weather.An ideal breakfast food is Grape-Nuts, treated with a little cream (which, by the way, supplies the necessary fat in a very digestible form), a cup of Postum Cereal Food Cuffee, hot, or if cold, it should have a little lemon juice squeezed in; then some fruit, either cooked or raw; also perhaps two slices of entire wheat bread with a very thin spread of butter. A breakfast of this sort is perfectly adapted to the wants of the system that one goes through the heat of the day in comfort as compared with the sweaty, disagreeable condition of improperly fed. Once put in practice the plan will never be abandoned during the hot days, for the difference in one's personal comfort is too great to be easily forgotten.BOOKS.300 Copyright Novels on the counter:

ed in this city for two or three years during the sixties. He is enjoying his visit very much.—Mrs. W. J. Ashplant will be at on the afternoon of Thursday and Friday this week.—Mrs. M. E. Griffith-Curnow, formerly of Queen's Avenue Methodist Church, London, sang in the Hanson Place Methodist Church, of Brooklyn, N. Y., Aug. 4. Her solo, "Praise to Thy Soul," was rendered with good effect. She is engaged as contralto soloist for the month of August.—Mr. Charles H. German, of W. W.

Wilkinson's, leaves tonight for London to take charge of the wholesale dress goods department of Robinson & Little. Mr. German has been with W. W. Wilkinson for the past seven years, and the fact that he is now promoted to so excellent a position speaks well not only for his own personal worth as a salesman, but also for the establishment that has fitted him for so signal an advancement.
Mr. German is one of our best known and best liked young business men in Galt and we feel very sorry to lose him. —Galt Reformer, Aug. 5.DEATH OF ROBERT MEIKLE.Robert Meikle, for many years por-wife of Fred Higman, Mill street, died Monday. Mrs. Higman was a daughter of Charles Gledhill, of Victor street, and had been married only about a year, and the husband and family will affliction the sincere sympathy of a large number of friends.THEY HURRIED.Miss Mabel Denley, of London, Ont., stepped off the west-bound train this morning, says a Rat Portage dispatch of Aug. 6, and was met at the platwaiting-room, where Rev. J. H. Morthe ceremony. The bride was assisted
