The Passing Year.

They're passing away, these swift, sweet

years,
Like a leaf on the current cast;
With never a break in the rapid flow,
We watch them as one by one they go
Into the beautiful past.

As light as the beautiful thistledown, As fond as a lover's dream,

As pure as the flush in the sea-shell's throat,

As sweet as the wood-bird's wooing note,

One after another we see them pass

Down the dim-lighted stair; We hear the sound of their steady tread

In the steps of centuries long since dead.

There are only a few years yet to love— Shall we waste them in idla strife? Shall we trample under our ruthless feet These beautiful blossoms, rare and sweet, By the dusty ways of life?

There are only a few swift years. Oh, let No envious taunts be heard; Make life's fair pattern of rare design, And fill up the measure with love's sweet

But never an angry word.

DEDICATION CEREMONY.

Opening of the New Home of the Knights Templar

Pleasant Affair in Which Visiting Fraters and Local Entertainers Participated.

Richard Coeur de Lion Preceptory, No. 4, Knights Templar, whose new and extremely beautiful rooms occupy the top floor of the Ontario Loan and Debenture building in the Market Lane, had a two-fold honor last night-they welcomed and entertained the supreme grand master of Canada, Sir Knight David L. Carley, of Windsor, and had performed, under his guldance, for the first time in the grand jurisdiction, the dedication ceremony of the order. The new home of the Knights Templar, which was devoted to the work of the order last night, comprises a suite of handsomely equipped rooms, constructed with a view to the convenience of Our assortment of choice things in jewelry never runs low, and if you want a choice article to give as a New Year Gift we have just what you want, whether in Hings, Brooches, Necklets, Lockets, Stick Pins, Cuff Links, Studs or Watches. Such gifts are always appreciated and valued. the Knights, and containing every facility for the advancement of their work. The enterprise of the preceptory in so adequately providing a substitute for the quarters destroyed by the Masonic Temple fire was commented upon by the grand knight in a speech that he made after the dedication ceremony. He said that Richard Coeur de Lion was always looked upon as one of the brightest and best working preceptories in the jurisdiction and had been an honor to the order. There were many members who deserved a great deal of credit for the position occupied by the preceptory—M. E. Sir Knight Dewar, of the old guard, and Sir Knights Escott, Campbell and Stenberg, younger members, even though they were old in the order. In conducting the dedication ceremony, Sir Knight Carley had as his staff R. E. Sir Knight A. A. Campbell, of Lon-don, as chaplain; V. E. Sir Knight E. G. Swift, of Walkerville, as preceptor; R. E. Sir Knight A. M. Stewart, of Windsor, as constable; R. E. Sir Knight J. Dambra, of London, as marshal; E. Sir Knight W. H. Escott of London, as standard-bearer. Most Eminent Sir Knight J. S. Dewar, of London, chairman of the London committee on entertainment and rooms, was aide-da-camp to the supreme grand master. The latter and his staff were first presented under an arch of steel to the presiding precep-tor of Richard Coeur de Lion, E. Sir Knight W. H. Escott, and on behalf of the preceptory, M. E. Sir Knight Dewar surrendered the rooms to the grand master with the hope that they would merit his approbation and the approval of the fraters.

Short speeches were subsequently made by Eminent Sir Knight Stewart, of Windsor: Eminent Sir Knight Swift. of Walkerville, and Dr. Cl. T. Campbell, and the evening's entertainment was continued by Miss Kurzenknabe, whose readings were much enjoyed, Miss Grant. Mrs. D. B. Robb, Mr. Crawford, Mr. Charles Wheeler and the Italian Harpers. Refreshments were served to the company, which included a hundred or more of the Knights Templar and their friends.
