Organization to Put Men Out of Business When Useless.

Atlantic City, April 17. - The first Osler Club in the world was organized here with 20 charter members. All are prosperous, active in business and vigorous in health.

The president of the club, Benjamin Bacharach, vows that each member solemnly bound to retire from activ business when the majority of his fellows declares he should be "Oslered. Only men between 40 and 45 years of age are eligible to membership.
"If the majority so orders, will you chloroform a member when he reaches the age of 60?" Mr. Bacharach was

A Philadelphian, who was carrying his grip to the railroad station remarked somewhat sadly:

"The formation of the Atlantic City Osler Club must not be taken as a joke," said Mr. Bacharach. "We believe in the wisdom of Dr. Osler's theories. We firmly believe men should retire, certainly from business, when they reach the limit of their usefulness. The commercial and professional worlds are encumbered by those who should make way for younger, more active, more useful men. "We will do our best to bring this
