Commons. [Canadian Press.] London, June 25.—American firearms and American heiresses were the subjects of some amusing banter today between the rival Irish factions in the House of Commons.

Premier Asquith was asked to take special steps to prevent arms entering Ireland from the United States, in respense to the appeal of John Redmond, leader of the Irish Nationalists, to Michael J. Ryan, president of the United Irish League, Philadelphia, for aid to the Nationalist volunteers in Ireland. David who replied on behalf of the premier, declined to make any representations on the subject to the American Government. Arthur Lynch, a Nationalist member, then tried to carry the war into the Unionist camp by inviting Lloyd George to ascertain how much money American heiresses had furnished to foment civil war in Ireland, but hilarious shouts from the Opposition of "Where is Harcourt?" reminded him that there were American heiresses in both camps. Robert Vernon Harcourt, a Radical member, is a son of Lady Harcourt, a daughter of John L. Motley, formerly United States minister in London
