Tempting Bargains in the Si k Department for the Last Week of Our July Sale

The last day of this month we take stock. We have a much larger quantity of goods on our shelves than we care to carry at the present time, and in order to save labor during stock-taking and provide room for our new seasons' goods, that are due to arrive by about the end of August, we have determined-if low price will do it-to clean out all our Summer goods by this month-end. To the woman who requires a new dress at a very moderate cost, this is an exceptional opportunity, and should be carefully investigated by all who may be in
