SUSPECTED WIFE MURDER. A Lestieville Woman Bead in Her Bed-

selieville yesterday morning when the report ne current that a woman named Bibby, about are of age, had been murdered in bed during ight by her husband. The facts appear to be in the semi-public meeting to be held in the city council chamber on the evening of August 29 promises to be of great interest. A number of promisms to be of great interest. to years of age, had been murdered in bed during the night by her husband. The facts appear to be afternoon found his wife lying in bed. He accused her of being drunk and struck her in the face, but not he says, with sufficient force to inflict any serious injury. After getting himself some dinner he put his children to bed in the wife's room and lay on the foor in the dining-room himself. During the night he heard a noise and found toat his wife had fallen out of bed. He replaced her, and before leaving for work in the moraing he went to see how his wife was and found her dead. He at once sent for Dr. Carroll, and not finding that gentleman in he called on Dr. Spears, who returned to the house with Bibby. The doctor examined the with Bibby. The doctor examined the with Bibby. The doctor examined the shaulder. He thinks this was more likely caused by a fall than by blows. Shortly after the doctor eff, Bibby was arcested by County Constable Bedey. The prisoner did not appear to feel his position, but commented upon the misfortune of haeing drunken wife. Last night in inquest was opened it Riverside by Dr. Philbrick, and after some presiminary busness it was adjourned till Monday wight. afternoon found his wife lying in bed. He accused jerked himself from the constable's grasp, and after rushing along the corrider dashed down the main stair case and out into Court street. "Stop thier roared half a dozen policemen as they rushed after Murphy, who with a good led was making for Church street, followed by the crowd. Murphy turned to the right on Church street and continued his course to Colborne street, where he turned to the left. The fugitive cluded the constables by entering Mr. J. E. Divon's leather belt manufacturing premises. The building was scarched, but the baffled officers could not discover Murphy. Mur, by appeared at an upper-story window, and swinging himself out jumped to the street. Recovering his feet he bounded towards the market, cosely pursued by the excited cowd. Running up Francis street he turned into a lane which ented alongly about twenty ya ds from the street where he was

SARATOGA, Aug. 25 — There were nine entries for the professional race, and seven appeared, Geo W Lee, J H Riley, G H Hosmer, Harry Sheldon, Chas H Courtney, Wallace Ross and Jas A TenEyck. This was a fine field of oarsmen, and only lacked Hanlan to make it perfect. Ross and Courtney were the favorites, but Lee got away from them, taking first prize and $1000, Courtney came next with Ross third. Time.—Lee, 20.43½; Courtney 20.45½.

The Press I xcursion.

The correspondent of The World with the press excursion to Winnipeg writes: We left Toronto at noon Tuesday last and reached St. Thomas at 5, where we had lunch. Two Pullman cars were filled by the excursionists, so that it was necessary that two should sleep in a birth. Eight French-Canadian editors are with the party. Mr. Higgans of the Whithy Chronicle tried to pass himself off as a Freach journalist, but the Chicagoans did not see it. On Wednesday morning the party re-ched Chicago and put up at the Palmer house. The foremon was spent in viewing the city and the Score noon was spent in viewing the city and the Score noon was spent in viewing the city and the Score noon was spent in viewing the city and the Score noon was spent in the Toronto ladies.
