A special committee appointed at the last meeting to consider the advisability of placing candidates in the field for municipal honors, recommended as follows: "That a circular calling a convention of all labor organizations, delegates to which to be upon the same basis as representation in this council, the convention to be called Friday evening, Nov. 29."

The Ligislative Comittee's report directed the attention of the council to a despatch of Oct. 29, announcing that the Federal Government had appoint
Mr. Edward Wallace a broker from Chicago, who is visiting the city, fell on Yonge-street near The World office yesterday afternoon and fractured his right shoulder and lower part of his arm. He was taken to the Toronto General Hospital.

TROUBLE IN THE Q.O.R. The Sergeant-Major Said to Have Re-

Adjutant.

The sergeants of the Queen's Own Rifles again hae a grievance; in fact, for the pas year the white winged angel of peace has not been playing in their yard. This time the trouble arises over a difference of opinion between Sergt. Major George and Capt. Gunther, acting adjutant, as to which has theauthority to apoint a band sergeant, a position not called for in the regulations governing a rifle regiment, but is usually filled by one of the staff sergeants.

At a recent parade Staff Sergeant Creighton was in charge of the band, in accordance with the wishes of the sergeant-major, but at the text parade Staff Sergt. Ashall was also on hand for the same duty, and was read out in orders to act as band sergeant-major, and it culminated in the latter asking Col, Hamilton for his ruling on the matter.
