

Don't Look Old Before Your Time

WOMAN'S delicate system requires more than ordinary care and attention—more care and attention than it is given by the average woman. Neglect it and ill soon creep in, and the look of old age, sometimes quickly, sometimes gradually follows.

That tuckache, so common among women, brings with it the sunken chest, the headache, tired muscles, crows' feet, and soon the youthful body is no more youthful in appearance—and all because of lack of attention.

There is no reason why you should be so unfortunate, when you have at your disposal a remedy such as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription—recommended for over 40 years as a remedy for ailments peculiar to women. We have thousands upon thousands of testimonials on file—the accumulation of 40 years—testifying to its effectiveness. Neither narcotics nor alcohol are to be found in this famous prescription. Regulates irregularities, corrects displacements, overcomes painful periods. Tones up nerves. Brings about perfect health. Sold by dealers in medicines, in liquid or tablet form.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Advertiser, newly revised up-to-date edition, answers hosts of delicate questions about which every woman, single or married ought to know.

The Life of an Editor

Many people believe that a newspaper falls together without work, concerted plan or action. The Rev. McLeod, a Presbyterian minister of Pasadena, was of the opinion, and asked to be allowed to edit one edition of the Pasadena Star. This is how he felt himself at last at the end of his task, which, it must be said, had been done quite creditably:

"My time is now almost up as I pen this last line, my head is almost paralyzed; my brain is befuddled, as I am free to confess that I am right glad to vacate the holy spot. Such a jumble and rush. It strikes me as the effort to bring order out of chaos, and to do it lightning quick. I am reminded of the memorable words, 'The earth was without form and void, and darkness was upon the face of the deep. And the spirit moved upon the face of the waters.' Never again shall I criticize newspaper men; more, I shall pray for them. They will have my heart's forbearance henceforth and forever. They are the hardest worked, shortest-lived, poorest paid brainworkers on this weary old world."

Is it Worth While?

A few things for which the modern girl is criticized:

- For being intellectual.
- For being silly.
- For getting off a car backward.
- For taking an interest in athletics.
- For being a little bit "fast."
- For being a prude.
- For not marrying.
- For being anxious to marry.
- For being frivolous.
- For taking herself too seriously.
- For neglecting baby.
- For being a parasite.
- For thrusting herself into men's occupations.
- For wanting to vote.
- For taking no interest in civic matters.
- Is it really worth while being a girl?

A Smile or Two

"I feel as if I were going to have appendicitis." Well, I need a new gown, so you'll just have to wait."—Life.

"Why don't you try dieting for your trouble?"
"I have tried it. All last week I never eat more than twice a day."

"We could have settled our difficulties by tossing a coin. Instead we spent a lot of money in going to law."
"Well?"
"I understand the jury settled matters by tossing a coin."

"We call our office boy the Little Dragon."
"Warlike little fellow, eh?"
"Oh, no; it's because he has to be booted and spurred before we can get anything out of him."

A professor of divinity who was spending the summer in the Scottish highlands was invited to baptize the infant son of the local minister.

When the time of the ceremony arrived the guest gave out for congregational singing a paraphrase much favored on such occasions.

Let us sing from the fifth paraphrase, beginning at the second verse, 'As sparks in close succession rise,' he said.

To his consternation the congregation giggled audibly. Afterward, asking the clerk what he had done wrong, he was told:

"You must know, professor, the minister's name is Sparks, and yonder is his tenth bairn!"

The best man was doing his best to make the groom brace up. "Where's your nerve, old man?" he asked. "Why, you're shaking like a leaf." "I know I am," chattered the groom. "But this is a nerve-wrecking time for me. I've got some excuse to be frightened, haven't I? I've never been married before."

"Of course you haven't," soothed the prospective father-in-law. "If you had you'd be a great deal more scared than you are."

An Irishman out of work applied to the "boss" of a large repair shop. "Do you know anything about carpentry?" asked the boss.

"Shure!"
"Do you know how to make a Venetian blind?"
"Shure!"
"How would you do it?"
"Shure, I'd poke me finger in his eye."

It is a long time since peaches have been so cheap. Maybe that is what makes so many of the hard green ones blush so prettily behind their muslin veils.

A traveler in Indiana noticed that a farmer was having trouble with his horse. It would start, go slowly for a short distance, and then stop again. Thereupon, the farmer would have great difficulty in getting it started. Finally, the traveler approached and asked solicitously:

"Is your horse sick?"
"Not that I know of."
"Is he balky?"
"No, but he is so danged 'fraid I'll say whoa and he won't hear me that he stops every once in a while to listen."

RUB IT IN FOR LAME BACK.—A brisk rubbing with Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil will cure lame back. The skin will immediately absorb the oil and it will penetrate the tissues and bring speedy relief. Try it and be convinced. As the liniment sinks in the pain comes out and there are ample grounds for saying that its touch is magical, as it is.

Life is a conundrum that everybody gives up sooner or later.

However great success may seem, it is not real without self-respect.

Counting The Years

The years shouldn't count when we're stating our age, for some men are young when they're gray, and others are old ere they've journeyed a stage in this world and its wonderful way. I know an old graybeard who ought to be dead if years laid a man by the heels! he cheerily sings as he stands on his head: "A man's just as old as he feels." The years do not age us so badly, in truth; it's worry that makes the blood cold; the man who is blessed with the spirit of youth is young when a hundred years old; the graybeard I wot of, he laughs and he yells, and dances Virginia reels, and always and ever his roundelay swells: "A man's just as old as he feels." No man should admit that his days are near told, or talk of the past with a sob; no man should admit that he's growing too old to eat summer corn from the cob; the graybeard I speak of, he's slicker than grease, he cheers up the world with his spels; he says (and his words suggest comfort and peace): "A man's just as old as he feels." I know a young man who is 30 or less, in years, but he's old as the hills; he goes around looking for grief and distress, and talks by the day of his ills. The graybeard, God bless him, is younger than that! He ne'er at the wailing place kneels, he chortles, while kicking a hole through his hat: "A man's just as old as he feels!"—Walt Mason.

Bad Blood

is the direct and inevitable result of irregular or constipated bowels and clogged-up kidneys and skin. The undigested food and other waste matter which is allowed to accumulate poisons the blood and the whole system. Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills act directly on the bowels, regulating them—on the kidneys, giving them ease and strength to properly filter the blood—and on the skin, opening up the pores. ### A Terrible Prospect

Dr. Olive Lynn, of Colorado Springs, says: "If the woman of today wants to be beautiful, it's back to the old days of the freezing cold bedroom, the chilly sheets and the warming pan," she says. "It's back to the broom and the rolling pin and the breadboard, if she wants firm, round, white arms; to the wash tub and the mop and the task of making beds, if she wants small waist and hips; to the clothesline and the cook stove for full chest and gracefully rounded shoulders; to washing windows and weeding the garden for grace and freedom of movement."

Rumor is a great liar.

If you trade in Watford you go home satisfied.

It doesn't make a lightweight any heavier to put on airs.

The world is on a ceaseless hunt for bigger and braver and brighter personalities.

It's the man with the narrowest mind who is apt to make the broadest assertions.

No one need endure the agony of corns with Holloway's Corn Cure on hand to remove them.

Obstacles are designed to test the tenacity, arouse the ingenuity and spur on the will of man.

Those people are truly great who share their pleasures with others, but keep their troubles to themselves.

Little fault would be found with people who tell all they know if they would quit when they had done that.

Nothing is easier than fault-finding. No talent, no self-denial, no character is required to set up in this business.

Happiness will remain a will-o'-the-wisp so long as you are deluded with the notion that you can forget wrong doing.

Miller's Worm Powders destroy worms without any inconvenience to the child, and so effectually that they pass from the body unperceived. They are not ejected in their entirety, but are ground up and pass away through the bowels and leave them in a condition not favorable to worms, and there will be no revival of the pests.

The following is a tried and true recipe for driving away ants of all kinds: Equal parts of tartar emetic and sugar. Mix dry, then moisten with water to the consistency of syrup, and put on a dish in the runway of the ants. They will eat freely of it and fail to return for a long time, or perhaps for the season. The dish may be set away when dry. When again needed add water and a little more sugar, and it is ready for use. The one dish may be used several times. Great care should be observed in order that children do not get at the tartar emetic preparation as it is poisonous.

Watford merchants have the goods and meet all price competition.

Save your pennies, children, a good merry-go-round has been engaged for the Watford Fair.

Most people would be benefited by the occasional use of Na-Dru-Co Laxatives. Gently, thoroughly, and without discomfort, they free the system of the waste which poisons the blood and lowers the vitality. 25c. a box, at your Druggist's. National Drug and Chemical Co. of Canada, Limited. 176
