THE PROPHETS OF WINTER

A strange story emanates from Banff concerning the eccentric behavior of wild creatures in that vicinity, says the "Montreal Gazette". The local correspondent perchance cherished the ambition of outdoing the cub reporter who every August fishes up a sea-serpent romance, it is a most diverting contest this between the Old Man of the Mountains and Old Triton of the Seas. At any rate we must allow them to fight it out as best they may, whilst protest the reporter of the Rockies has the floor, so to speak. We are entertained mightily by visions of shaggy beasts coming down from the forested heights to fear about the homes of men and fraternize in their uncouth fashion with the visitors and residents in that delectable neighborhood. Bear, elk and antelope are said to be walking the streets in broad daylight, showing no fear of man and mutely begging to be fed from lunch hands. The Banff householder having a good larder can add to his gratification a backward zoo to his garden, and it is affirmed that the "Banff brain" with a rolicking sense of humor actually refuses to pick up the tidbits bang his way, preferring to be daintily fed from the fingers, the while children amuse themselves by teasing at the antlers of sportive elk. Perhaps so. Nothing is impossible in a world that bulges with daily marvels. Yet this story needs the seasoning of a pinch of salt to make it an almost perfect salad dish up from the Golden Age.

"Almost," we repeat, for we fail to divine how this fanciful caper of the wild animals can be construed as pre-aging a severe winter. If this prediction is no better than the prophetic impulse which led some wisecracker to forecast an "open winter" last year it may be dismissed as a pipe dream. But why severe winter this coming season? Why interpret a meek gesture in so rugged and uninviting a strain? One guess is as good as another. The beasts have in mind harked back to the pre-historic calm of Pelagias peace. They have backslid into the Edenic composure, lest the Bolsheviks should recruit them and gobble up the world. Or again, it is quite possible that the bear and the bull elk have smelled out ahead the pasture of the halcyon days ahead and wish to be on time for the final General Assembly of the League of Nations. There is something "brainy" to be sure, and what special bearing this weird and concerted trek has upon the course of human events we know not—unless the elk chooses to give us a few points on the problem. Yet, when the barbaric beasts in pussyfoot pilgrimage and with ox-eyed gaze elect to stroll in from the wilds in this fashion, it is a fair wager that the millennium approaches. As for severe winter—muskrat! The land-slide blood campaign blazes at the thought, and besides the world, the besties have not yet dropped off the barley stalks. Any ditty from a Banff porch must be a tall order. We are willing to await developments. The weather prophet is like a cricket. Nobody can tell which way he will jump next.

Press Comment

ONE WAY OF THINKING

Detroit News: The truth is that in commercial standards and practices, in social inter-course, in the ordinary personal relations of life, and even in ideals of democratic government, Canada is much closer to the United States than to the rest of the Empire, of which she is a member.

TAX REDUCTION.

Kansas City Times: It is no longer a matter of mere finance. It is a question of leaving with every family more of its earnings to use for the comforts of life, for education, and for larger opportunities generally. The reduction of taxes thus treated becomes a human subject of concern to every family in the land.

AGGRESSORS AND GUARANTEES.

Die Zeit (Berlin): France is apparently under the impression that the rights and obligations which accrue to her in her capacity as guarantor take precedence over the general guarantees of the League of Nations. It is actually the case that it becomes a problem to know which authority shall decide as to the aggressor, in the event of a Polish-German conflict. The difficult question which already cropped up at the Geneva with regard to this question of an aggressor are well known. It would be utterly impossible for one of Poland's allies to remain impartial in a matter which is decisive in all wars; that of knowing who provoked hostilities.

THE UNITY OF MOROCCO

Heraldo (Madrid): Morocco is a definite entity, though made up of diverse elements, and it would be absurd for the nations under whose protection it lies to wish to divide it up. It has a religious unity. The arbitrary partition of Morocco rests on the fact that the nations to which the protectorate has been entrusted protected nation still remains indivisible and united by a bond stronger than any political or social tie, the religious bond. In recognition of this fact, the spiritual authority of the Sultan has been recognized. But since France and Spain neither agree nor work together and each follows a strictly national policy in Morocco, this unity which should have been respected has been inevitably compromised. If France and Spain cannot work together, the whole theory of the protectorate must be set at naught.

—Enthusiasm is the spark-plug that keeps the current circulating in the business engine.

It has happened at last—the impossible. A motor car won an argument with a passenger train at a railroad crossing near Kalamazoo, Michigan. But the owner of the car was not there to enjoy it. He left the stalled car on the track and went for help, and while he was gone the driverless car won the battle and wrecked the train.

MEETING OF THE ANNAPOLIS DEANERY

The Rural Deanery of Annapolis met at Weymouth on Monday and Tuesday, Aug. 24 and 25, 1925 with the following clergy present—From the Deanery, the Revs. M. Taylor, A. W. L. Smith, R. A. Neish, R. A. Miller, and Canon Underwood. As visitors, His Grace The Archbishop of Nova Scotia, Arch-Deacons, Vroom and Watson, Canon Morris and Canon Cumming, Rev. R. T. Carson, Logan Tenens at Round Hill and the Rev. Cuthbert Simpson.

In absence of the Rural Dean Driffield (who is away on special holiday) the senior priest, Rev. M. A. Taylor, presided. After the usual opening service and reading of the minutes and Ordinal, Mr. Taylor welcomed the Archbishop and visiting clergy. In the absence of the Rural Dean, who was the exegota, the Greek Testament was carried on to the next meeting and its place was taken by a timely paper on "Beneficiary Funds" by Archdeacon Watson. The importance of this paper was shown by the unanimous passing of the following resolution:—

Resolved that this meeting heartily thank Archdeacon Watson for his valuable paper and ventures to suggest that he give his consent to having it typed and sent to Mr. McWhinney, Treas. of the A. F. M. Fund, for criticism, then to send a copy of it with Mr. McWhinney's reply to each Rural Dean within the Diocese with the request that it be read at the next meeting of his chapter, to which meeting, if convenient, the lay representatives to Synod, shall be invited.

The question of a Deanery magazine was taken up and discussed at length and continued till adjournment at 5.30. In due course on Tuesday morning it was resumed and the following resolution was passed unanimously:—

Resolved that the several Rectors of the Deanery send to the Rector of Wilmot by the 15th of each month such news and communications as they desire to have incorporated in the Deanery Magazine, beginning with the 15th day of September.

The resolution went on to particulars of number of copies and the nature of the paper. It was decided to have Church Work for this purpose, provided it was suitable. At present the filler in the Wilmot Parish magazine is "The Canadian Chronicle". In the matter of finance the Rectors of the various parishes of the Deanery agreed to stand behind the Rector of Wilmot.

Monday evening at 8 p.m. two services were held. One in St. Peter's, Weymouth North, which was attended by all the clergy except Canon Underwood, the preacher being the Archbishop. The second service was in St. Mary's, Barton, and was conducted by Canon Underwood.

The Deanery Service proper was held Tuesday morning at 8 a.m. in St. Peter's Church. The Archbishop celebrated the Holy Communion, assisted by Arch-Deacon Vroom. The Rev. R. A. Miller was the "ad clericum" preacher.

Tuesday's sessions were taken up with the reading and discussion of three papers. The first by Canon Morris, entitled, "Notes on the Real Presence," which led to an earnest and devout discussion and the request that the Canon allow the paper to be type-written and circulated among the members of the Deanery. To this he consented.

The second paper was by Arch-Deacon Vroom, entitled, "Some Considerations of the Communion Office," which was followed by discussion and questions.

The last paper was by Rev. R. A. Neish on "Some Considerations Arising out of the Early History of the Christian Ministry." Discussion followed as far as time permitted.

At 4 p.m. the brethren dined at the Goodwin Hotel, the guests of the local branch of the W. A.

At 8 p.m. two services were held, one at St. Thomas' Church, Weymouth Bridge, at which most of the clergy were present, including the Archbishop, the preacher being the Rev. R. L. Carson. The second service was in St. Matthew's Church, Weymouth Falls, conducted by Canon Underwood, who substituted for Rev. R. A. Miller, who had to return to Middleton during the afternoon.

The miscellaneous business conducted during the session included the selection of Digby as the next place of meeting on Mon. and Tues. November the 23rd and 24th, the Rev. Canon Underwood being Ad Clericum preacher. Papers were arranged for.

The Rev. A. W. L. Smith extended a hearty invitation to the clergy to be present and take part in the Memorial and Decoration Service in the old Historic Church of St. Edward on Wednesday, and also informed the clergy that a number of books and a lantern, belonging to the late Rural Dean, Rev. H. How, were for sale. Votes of thanks were passed to the Rector and his wife to the hosts and hostesses for their kind hospitality; also to the W. A.

Resolutions were passed expressing regret at the absence of the Rural Dean and the hope that, his health would be benefited by his trip and

ASK THIS HALIFAX NURSE

She Is Willing to Answer Letters from Women Asking About Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Halifax, Nova Scotia.—"I am a maternity nurse and have recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to many women who were childless, also to women who need a good tonic. I am English and my husband is American, and he told me of Lydia E. Pinkham while in England. I would appreciate a copy of two of your little books on women's ailments. I have one which I keep to lend. I will willingly answer letters from any woman asking about the Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. M. COLEMAN, 24 Uniacke Street, Halifax, Nova Scotia.

Could Not Sleep Nights
Dublin, Ontario.—"I was weak and irregular, with pains and headaches, and could not sleep nights. I learned about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound by reading the letters in the newspapers and tried it because I wanted to get better. I have got good results from it and I feel a lot stronger and am not troubled with such bad headaches as I used to be and am more regular. I am gaining in weight all the time and I tell my friends what kind of medicine I am taking. You may use my letter as a help to others."—Mrs. JAMES RACHO, Box 12, Dublin, Ontario.

regretting the absence of the Rev. T. C. Mellor, Rector of Annapolis Royal, with sympathy with him in his illness and trusting he might be benefited by a rest.

This ended a one day Nova Scotia's busy spots in ideal weather and because of the high order and excellence of the papers read made its contribution to the best traditions of the deanery.

On Wednesday the following clergy were able to be present and the Annual Memorial Service in the old Wesleyan Church at Clementsport, His Grace the Archbishop, Ven. Arch-Deacon Vroom, Canon Morris, Canon Underwood, Revs. Morris Taylor, R. A. Miller, R. A. Neish and Rev. A. W. L. Smith.

This service at which The Archbishop presided will long be remembered for the sweet reverential atmosphere which seemed to pervade the ancient church and for the heart-felt congregational singing.

THE TITLE "HONORABLE"

(Bridgewater Bulletin.)

To the Editor of the Bulletin: Sir: In reply to your enquiry of the 28th instant, with regard to the proper use of the title "Honorable" in Canada, I have to say that the official and legal regulations appear to be as stated below. Of course, the Canadian title is only for use in Canada by Canadians. I have heard of a Canadian who was threatened with prosecution in England for prefixing "Honorable" to his name on a hotel register, without adding "Canada." "Honorable" besides being an official title in the United Kingdom, is a title inherited by certain children of the nobility, who have vested interests in it. Those entitled to the prefix in the Dominion are indicated as follows:

- The Lieutenant-Governor (during office only).
- Privy Councillors of Canada (for life).
- The Solicitor General (during office only).
- Senators (during office only).
- The Speaker of the House of Commons (during office).
- The Chief Justice of Canada, and the Judges of the Supreme and Exchequer Courts of Canada, and (in Nova Scotia) the Chief Justice and Judges of the Supreme Court (during office).
- Presidents and Speakers of Provincial Legislatures (during office only).
- Provincial Executive Councillors (during office only).
- Legislative Councillors of Provinces are not entitled to "Honorable" unless they were appointed before July 1st, 1867.

HALIFAX, 31ST, AUGUST, 1925. Provincial Highway Board

The Provincial Highway Board has issued instructions to Motor Cycle and other Peace Officers which have been approved by the Governor-in-Council, as follows:

- (1) Either forthwith arrest the offender and bring him before a Magistrate to answer to the charge, or—
- (2) They will allow the offender to go free and then lay an information against him before a Magistrate and have him issue a summons or warrant, or—
- (3) They will inform the offender that he has the option of paying them there Ten dollars ($10.00), which is to be forwarded by the Motor Cycle Officer to the Provincial Highway Board for its consideration as to whether or not it will be accepted, under Section 45, as full satisfaction, release and discharge of all penalties and imprisonments incurred by such offender for such violation.

However, when the violation consists in operating a motor vehicle without the prescribed number plates or permit, or a Motor Cycle and other Peace Officers are instructed to proceed as follows:—

- (1) Either seize the motor vehicle and arrest the offender and bring him before a Magistrate, or—
- (2) Seize the motor vehicle and lay an information before a Magistrate, or—
- (3) Collect from the offender the fee payable for a permit for the car and transmit the fee and form of application to this office. In such cases instead of arresting the offender or laying information, Officers may inform him that he has the option of paying them and there the minimum penalty of Twenty-five dollars ($25.00), prescribed for the offence which amount will be remitted to the Provincial Highway Board for its consideration as to whether or not it will be accepted, under Section 45, as full satisfaction, release and discharge of all penalties and imprisonments incurred by such offender for such violation.

In Cases of persons drunk or intoxicated while operating a motor vehicle, the car is to be seized, and the offender arrested and brought before a Magistrate and prosecuted under the Criminal Law.

THREE SCORE AND TEN.

Age is not all unkind; that ebbling tide,
So sadly sung for what it bears away
Has drained the shallows where we
Lunched our pride,
But sander harks on surer seas
Abide,
Fraught with our hopes.

Age is not all unkind; the shuffling wave
Has barred a reef, where the sea-
wrack has lain,
While winds of noon's uprising
Round them rave,
Some gifts of grace life's innocent
Morning gave,
And evening finds again.

Age is not all unkind; the laboring wings,
For all their troublous beat, have stirred a sense
That in the shadow of departing
things,
As through life's droning griefs there something sings
Of peace and recompense.

—THOMAS THORNELY.

Governor-General for His Majesty's permission, Speakers of Senate and House of Commons, on retirement, after 3 years' service, may retain title.

Also, on similar conditions, the above mentioned Chief Justices and Judges may retain the title.

To be specific, the title individuals legally or properly entitled, at present to the Canadian prefix "Honorable" in or of Nova Scotia, are:
Right Honourable W. S. Fielding,
Hon. E. M. MacDonald,
Hon. E. K. Spinney,
Hon. F. B. McCardy,
Members of the Senate of Canada,
Judges of the Supreme Court,
His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor now in office.

The Prime Minister of the Province.
Each of the present members of the Provincial Executive Council.
When speakers of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly are chosen, each of them will be entitled to "Honorable" while in office.

If the public, and especially the press, would take cognizance of these facts, and also remember that it is usually considered an insult to a gentleman to bestow on him a title which is not his by right, and a disgrace to him if he accepts such title without protest, we should experience a sudden and graceful demobilization of the army of "Hons." now for a long time past billeted on this Province.
Yours very truly,
W. E. MACLELLAN,
Halifax, July 29th, 1925.

With appropriate pomp and ceremony the Hon. W. G. Nichol, Lieut.-Governor of British Columbia, and D. C. Coleman, Vice-President of the Canadian Pacific Railway, opened Crystal Gardens, Victoria—the largest and finest salt water swimming pool and amusement centre in Canada—recently.
The building takes the form of a winter garden, built by day and glittering by night with an atmosphere heavy with the scent of flowers and throbbing with music from a string orchestra. Built on a two-acre property, facing the fragrant gardens of the Empress Hotel, Crystal Gardens is of generous proportions, with lower portions in brick and concrete, and superstructure of steel and specially designed glass.
The interior is a huge conservatory with vines and palms and plants growing in abundance, and in the centre the largest salt water swimming pool on the continent.
To give a Roman Bath effect, from the peacock alley promenade and dancing floors above, there are concrete steps down to the landing of the pool, which is 150 feet long, 40 feet wide and 9 feet deep at its deepest point. Salt water is pumped
