

and manifested the deepest interest.

It might be added that the above lecturer delivered an account of Rupert's Land in the Market Hall, Fareham, where the Vicar of that parish, and the Chaplain-General of the Navy, and many others present exhibited the most lively interest".

From the Hampshire Chronicle,

April 27, 1867.

ERRATA.

- P 5. Introduction, first foot-note belongs to p.
 6 (§)—2nd. on p. 5. (||).
 P. 25. for 1814 read 1848.
 P. 77. for sized read seized.
 P. 77. for 1868 read 1683.
 P. 85 foot-note, after admission, first.
 P. 73. instead of bushed read bushel.