Sheep.

Mr. W. S. HAWKSHAW, Glanworth, Ont., writes: The time is coming, and is not very far off, when the demand for sheep will be greater than the supply. In my opinion, there is no line on a farm that will show such a profit as sheep, provided you have a farm suitable for sheep.

Mr. JOHN CAMPBELL, Fairview Farm, Woodville, Ont., writes: Of late the demand for good Shropshires is steadily increasing, and it is easily seen by close observers that the blackfaces will be wanted in great numbers by our American customers in a short time. It would be well, therefore, for every breeder to put forth his best efforts to improve the quality of his flock, as it is the good ones that sell first and at the most money. But the tail ends go slow and at poor money. I have just shipped a full carload of very good sheep—forty-six ewes and three rams—to Mr. Joseph Ballard, of Vermont State. Though an old customer, it was last week he saw our country here for the first time. Like many of our American cousins who visit us, he was pleasantly surprised in looking over the flocks and herds in this vicinity. Till he could see for himself, he could not believe that the "Shrops" would fare so well and be in such good bloom, handled in an ordinary way and fed so lightly on grain, as from watching in the several yards he ascertained our system of feeding. #### "MAPLE SHADE" HERDS AND FLOCKS.

BROOKLIN, ONT., Sept. 4th, 1890.

DEAR SIR,—I cannot afford to be without your "Little Sheep Dip and Cattle Wash." It is not merely useful for Sheep, but it is invaluable as a wash for Cattle, etc. It has proved the surest destroyer of lice, with which so many of our stables are infested, I have ever tried: it is also an effectual remedy for foul in the feet of Cattle. I can heartily recommend it to all farmers and breeders.

JOHN DRYDEN.
