

Accumulation Assisted

Every cent a man puts into life insurance is laid by toward the formation of an estate. It is in many cases an estate which would never have been otherwise accumulated. Most men find that life insurance saves for them the money they would otherwise have spent in non-essentials.

This thoroughly typical and representative Canadian book well deserves a place on the shelves of public and private libraries. The brief extracts given in this circular, and which are taken from extended newspaper reviews, show the favorable impression made upon the critics.
