MISCELLANEOUS.

Love never works for a set price.
 A conceited man's joy is to brag on himself.
 Love never finds a burden that it does not try to lift.
 A word often stabs and kills where a dagger wouldn't
 The man who seeks his reward in this world never gets one to suit him.
 Many people delude themselves into thinking that laziness is poor health.
 There is such a thing as being a thief without taking another's goods or gold.
 Put a smile on your face when you go out for a walk, and somebody will be helped.
 It pays to keep our ideas, and to believe that all women are good and all men honest.
 The wildest lion is harmless in comparison with the fury that may be stirred up by the tongue.
 As long as bad books and newspapers are made welcome in a home, the devil cannot be kept out.

The man who claims that there is no such thing as an honest man, tells others what he thinks of himself.

If you don't know from experience that it is more blessed to give than to receive you had better try it.

There are too many people who are willing to do all the shouting and let somebody else do all the work.

It pays not to be envious, for the velvet gown may cover a woman who would gladly exchange places with you.

Consumption follows neglected colds, Norway Pine Syrup cures coughs, asthma, sore throat, bronchitis and lung troubles.

It pays to be loving and kind, because kindness and consideration are wonderful coals of fire to heap on the heads of our enemies.

It pays to be cheerful in bad weather and in good weather, for a cheerful heart makes good weather even when there is no sunshine.

No matter where you open your Bible and discover the purpose of God, you will find the devil working with all his might to defeat it.

JULES D'ESTIMANVILLE CLEMENT writes from Montreal: "I was suffering from skin disease, and after all drugs failed tried Burdock Blood Bitters, of which three bottles restored me to good health. I recommend it also for Dyspepsia."

The career of the Presbyterian women's organization for the furtherance of home missions spans the period 1878-94.
 Fifteen years ago the entire receipts were less than is now received in any one month.

Coughs and Colds. Those who are suffering from Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Sore Throat, etc., should try Brown's BRONCHIAL TROCHES, a simple and effectual remedy. They contain nothing injurious, and may be used at all times with perfect safety.

The week of Prayer was originally instituted in behalf of foreign missions. It was thought that the first week of the new year could not be better spent than in prayer by the churches for the conversion of the world.

 talent man who is wholly the Lord's outweighs the man with ten who keeps one back. Not to be a Christian everywhere is to be one nowhere.
