

"USED UP."

"THE NEW ENGLISH "VET." SENT OUT TO REPORT UPON THE DOMINION STUD, INSPECTS, ON THE 6TH ULT., THE ONCE-FAMED MONTREAL HORSE, "VOLUNTEER."

"Viv!", assid.—"By Jove! what a come down! All gone in the legs and broken-winded, spavined, wind-galled, shoulder-shotten, and tail awfully worn away! Surely this must have been caused by the neglect and abuse of the proprietor and grooms." Aloud: "I say, my man, it's no use punishing him: the only chance I can see is to hand him over to his old groom."

MR. BARROWNETT, (boss of the Dominion Stud, and of "Volunteer" in particular,) aside—"By Gar! I fix him, dis time, but him die dam hard! He make me run like de debil thirty years' ago—by dam!"
