Mercantile Summary.

For the past three years a small business in clothing and dry goods has been carried on by M. Goldenberg, at Grande Mere, Que., but his assignment is now noted.

A SYRIAN, named A. Salhani, who for the past two years has carried on a small business in groceries and fancy goods in Montreal, has assigned to G. A. Stiles.

A GROCER, named J. D. Pilon, has been in business in Montreal about two years. Some few months ago he decided to get married, taking money out of the business for house furnishings etc., and now he has decided to fail, with his wife figuring as a creditor for $3,000 and a relative for other $1,300, total liabilities being $6,600.

UPON the demand of his father, N. Trudel, an assignment has been made by Louis Trudel, who is a hardware retailer in Montreal. Liabilities as filed in court, are shown at some $33,000, his wife figuring as a creditor for some $10,000, under her marriage contract. He has been in business about seven years, but is not considered to have shown good management, and the account has been described as a dragging one.
