TORONTO MARKETS.

TORONTO, June 25th, 1891.

BOOTS AND SHOES.—Business has improved a little during the last few days; and travellers' reports are more hopeful in tone. The recent falls of rain, coupled with the warm weather, have imbued country merchants with a very cheerful spirit. Summer samples are now being withdrawn, and complete fall samples are in the hands of travellers.

Factories are fairly busy on fall goods. Payments are still slow.

DRY GOODS.—Business has opened out fairly well since our last report, and in addition to orders from salesmen on the road, a fair sprinkling of buyers have been visiting the city yesterday and to-day. The purchases are of a sorting nature. We observe that in summer fabrics, English and American satens are receiving considerable attention. Colored silks, surahs, muslins, and lace goods generally, are being freely bought. It is probable that summer samples will be withdrawn entirely in the course of ten days. Payments are fairly good.

FLOUR AND OATMEAL.—The market is very quiet, with prices all round of flour unchanged. Some enquiries from the lower provinces are heard of, but no business has resulted so far. It is expected that July and August will show a better trade volume. The mills are not
