Dr. Jameson, the hero of the Transvaal raid, is at present the guest of Lord and Lady William Beresford.

The International Exhibition at Montreal, promoted by Mr. J. H. Stiles, will fortunately not be held this year for want of funds.

Dr. Herald has been appointed professor of clinical medicine at Queen's University, in succession to the late Dr. Saunders.

Lady Frank Smith, wife of Hon Sir Frank Smith, died Monday afternoon at the family residence, Toronto, after a brief illness.

Rev. F. B. Hodgins, of St. George's Church, Ottawa, has decided to accept the editorship of The Evangelical Churchman, Toronto.

The Liberals of Cornwall and Stormont have unanimously nominated Mr. J. G. Snetsinger, as their candidate for the Dominion House.

Miss Laurens Alma Tadema, daughter of the artist, is at work on a biography of Eleanor Duse, the actress, of whom she is a warm friend and admirer.

Col. Lake, of the Canadian staff, has met with a very favourable reception in London, and Lord Wolseley has settled that Canada is to have magazine rifles with which to rearm the militia.

Dr. Laughlin McFarlane, a well-known and successful Toronto doctor, died on Saturday from the effects of blood poisoning injected while operating on a patient suffering from frost-bite.

Prof. Goldwin Smith, in a letter in Saturday's London Times, says he believes the fusion of the Canadians with the people of the United States is complete in all respects, except political and fiscal. Indeed!

Sir Charles Tupper's mission to Montreal is believed to have resulted in securing Lieut.-Governor Chapleau's promise to return to public life as the Conservative leader for Quebec, and an agreement with the Allans to establish a fast line of Atlantic steamers.

In all the world there is but one man that can read the translation of the Bible into the language of the aborigines which was made by a Mr. Eliot in what is now Paxton, in 1649. That man is the well-known antiquarian and scholar, Trumbull, of Hartford, Conn.

The Prince of Wales has been much depressed since Henry of Battenberg's death. It seems that Albert Edward and Henry had their fortunes sold by a gypsy some years ago. The Prince of Wales was informed that he would never be King of England, and Henry that he would die seeking glory under a tropic sky.

Mr. Astor's new editor of his Pall Mall Gazette, Sir Douglas Straight, went from a London law office to India, where he became a judge, returned with a pension and a knighthood in one of the special Indian orders. He is between fifty and sixty years of age. His journalistic experience hitherto seems to have been a little London evening paper, shortly after he left Harrow school, more than thirty years ago.

To nursing mothers, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a priceless boon, for it not only strengthens the mother, but also promotes an abundant secretion of nourishment for the child. For those about to become mothers, it is even more valuable for it lessens the perils and pains of childbirth and shortens labour. Of all dealers.

Ovarian fibroid and other tumors cured without resort to surgical operation. For pamphlet, testimonials and references, send 10 cents (for postage) to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N.Y.
