

other than appeals from, her majesty's Courts of Vice-Admiralty, to which the said rules are not to be applied.

Whereof the judges and officers of her majesty's Courts of justice abroad, and the judges and officers of the superior Courts of the East India Company, and all other persons whom it may concern, are to take notice and govern themselves accordingly.

Le 24 mars 1871, un autre ordre en conseil règle ce qui suit :

I. All Cases, Records, and other proceedings in Appeals, or other matters pending before the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, are henceforth to be printed in the form known as DEMY QUARTO, and not in demy folio, as hath heretofore been used.

II. The size of the paper used is to be such that the sheet when folded, will be eleven inches in height and eight inches and a half in width.

III. The type to be used in the text is to be Pica type, but Long Primer is to be used in printing accounts, tabula matter, and notes.

IV. The number of lines in each page of Pica type is to be forty-seven, each line being five inches and three quarters or 146 millimetres in length.

V. The foregoing Rules do not apply to cases now pending in which the printing of the Record is begun before the receipt of this Order, but in all cases printed after the receipt of this Order the form and type herein prescribed are to be used exclusively.

VI. The price in England for printing 75 copies in the form herein established is to be thirty-eight shillings per sheet (eight pages) of Pica, with marginal notes, not including corrections, tabular matter, and other extras.

VII. The form of paper and type of the present Order in Council, with the pages hereunto annexed, are to serve as a specimen sheet or pattern for the printing of the proceedings before the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council.
