THE "WITNESS" SERIES.

"WORLD WIDE."

A Weekly Reprint of Articles and Cartoons from the leading journals and reviews reflecting the current thought of both hemispheres.

This remarkable and most readable journal has pushed its way, in a short time, beyond all expectations—chiefly owing to the goodwill of its rapidly-growing constituency. Without wisdom of its own, 'World Wide' reflects the wisdom of the age—the day—the hour—the moment. Without opinions of its own, 'World Wide' beats to the tick of modern British and American thought. 'World Wide' has found its place on the study table. Preachers, teachers, writers, and thinkers generally have hailed it as a new and most welcome companion. As a pleasant tonic—a stimulant to the mind—'World Wide' has no peer, at one price, no equal among the journals of the day.

An effort is made to select the articles each week so that due proportion is given to the various fields of human interest—to the shifting scenes of the world's great drama, to letters and science and beautiful things.

As someone has said 'World Wide' is a feast of reason—an intellectual treat.

Regular readers of 'World Wide' are kept in touch with the world's thinking.

$1.50 a year.

Post paid to any postal address the world over.

Anyone desiring to make a little money can do well canvassing his or her locality for this comparatively new publication.

THE "WITNESS."

The 'Witness' (Daily and Weekly), gives all the news that is worthy the attention of the average reader. It keeps its readers well informed on all subjects of interest. The cable, the telegraph, and the telephone, together with a staff of competent editors and reporters, all unite to make its news columns second to none.

The 'Witness' editorial pages are acknowledged by its readers on all sides to be both fair and forceful.

Reliable commercial news and quotations of the money, stock, and produce markets are features that make it of great value in the world of commerce, finance and agriculture.

The 'Witness' special departments, such as 'The Home,' 'Literary Review,' 'Letters from Readers,' 'Boys' Page,' 'Children's Corner,' 'Queries,' 'Agricultural,' 'Horticultural,' 'Veterinary,' 'Poultry,' 'Pets,' 'Medical,' 'Legal,' 'Numismatic,' 'Chess,' etc., are ably conducted by specialists at a large expense, offering a most valuable privilege to 'Witness' readers.

In 1846 the 'Witness' was started by the late John Dougall, and its aim was to supply the Dominion of Canada with the best possible newspaper. The 'Witness' has grown steadily since then. Modern machinery and present possibilities have secured great improvements. But it has never outgrown the principles that are, so to say, engraved on its corner stone.

Few papers have had a continuous existence for so long a period. Fewer still have held to the same principles and have been controlled by the same family for anything like so long a time. The result is that the 'Witness' enjoys a loyal constituency that cannot be tempted to leave it in favor of any other publication.

A newspaper published on the 'Witness' lines needs the support of those who are willing to pay its subscription price for the reason that it voluntarily foregoes in the interest of its subscribers a revenue from pernicious advertisements, etc., approaching fifty thousand dollars a year, that other publications accept regardless of their readers.

The 'Witness' is certainly unique among the great metropolitan newspapers of the world.

The 'Daily Witness.'

contains almost everything that appears in the Weekly, and has, of course, the advantage of bringing you the news every day.

$3.00 a year.

The

'Weekly Witness and Canadian Homestead' contains the best that appears in the 'Daily Witness,' besides giving somewhat more attention to agriculture and farmers' interests generally.

THE "NORTHERN MESSENGER."

A Weekly Illustrated 12 or 16 Page Paper, interesting alike to Young and Old. Canada's Most Popular Sabbath School Paper.

The 'Northern Messenger' contains nearly three times as much reading matter as any other paper of the same price, and we believe you will agree with us in thinking that the matter is of the most inspiring and interesting description.

For Sabbath-school distribution it will prove a great inducement to the scholar to come to Sunday-school—not only to come, but to come regularly, as the family at home will otherwise miss their generous weekly budget of Sunday reading, and parts of the short continued stories which appear from week to week. Or it may be, on this account, used by teachers as an occasion to call on each of their scholars every time the scholar may be absent.

Another of its advantages is that it is a Canadian paper, while most of its contemporaries are printed in the United States, and on the Fourth of July and Decoration Day, as well as other occasions, are filled with national matter less grateful to the patriotism of our youth than to that of those to whom it is addressed. The 'Northern Messenger,' in cultivating patriotism, proposes to do so on British and Canadian models.

But its most surprising feature is its price—40 cents a year.

Three subscriptions to different addresses $1.00, or four for $1.20.

Ten or more subscriptions to the same address, only 20c. each.
