ry Questions warrant most My delegation is pleased to note that the speakers in the general debate on technical assistance speakers in the general have stressed the great walks. almost without exception have stressed the great value of United Nations activities in this field. It is evident from the statements we have heard that few efforts at international co-operation in the economic field have been so effective or have commanded such wide support as the regular programmes of technical assistance and the Expanded Programme. My delegation, Mr. Chairman, believes that these programmes, as well as those under the Colombo Plan, are of the greatest importance and that the exchanges of technical skills which they promote are making a positive and fruitful contribution towards the improvement of living standards throughout the world.

Canada's continuing support for United Nations Technical Assistance activities was Nations Technical Assistance activities was demonstrated in a concrete way last February when the Canadian Parliament approved a contribution the Canadian Parliament approved a contribution of $1,500,000 for this year's programme. This contribution - exceeded only by those of the contribution - exceeded only by those of the United States and the United Kingdom - was almost United States and the United Kingdom - was almost double the Canadian contribution for 1953; it was double the Canadian contribution the spokesmen of authorized after a debate in which the spokesmen of the canadian contribution for 1953; it was double the Canadian contribution which the spokesmen of the canadian contribution for 1953; it was double the Canadian contribution which the spokesmen of the canadian contribution for 1953; it was double the Canadian contribution the spokesmen canadian contribution the canadian contribution for 1953; it was double the Canadian contribution the canadian contribution for 1953; it was double the Canadian contribution the canadian contribution the canadian contribution for 1953; it was double the Canadian contribution contribution the canadian contribution the canadian contribution contrib authorized after a debate in which the spokesmen of authorized parties stressed the value of Canadian all political parties attended Assistance. For the participation in Technical Assistance. coming year it is the intention of the Canadian Government to seek again Parliamentary approval of a contribution of $1,500,000 to the United Nations a contribution of Technical Assistance. An offer Expanded Programme of Technical Assistance of this size by Canada is of course based on the of this size by Canada is of course based on the assumption that contributions of other countries will be on a scale which would permit of an effective programme.

It is with satisfaction, Mr. Chairman, that my Delegation notes the increasing administrative that my Delegation notes the increasing administra efficiency of the technical assistance programmes, and the interest which all concerned are evincing and the interest to achieve this efficiency. We in further steps to achieve this efficiency of improved concerned in particular the evidence of improved concerned in particular the agencies concerned with the ordination between the agencies concerned with the
