

The Services Centre offers Counselling Services to assist you and your family in finding the right educational facilities for your children, and information on employment opportunities for your spouse.

Right from the start, and even if you are not expected to leave for several months, it is important that you drop in to SERV in order to get administrative arrangements organized.