

Private Bills—Divorce

On section 3—$21,500 granted for 1951-52.

Mr. Knowles: On division.

Section agreed to.

Schedule A agreed to.

On schedule B.

Mr. Knowles: On division.

Schedule agreed to.

Preamble agreed to.

Bill reported.

Mr. Speaker: When shall this bill be read a third time?

Mr. Abbott: Now.

Mr. Knowles: By leave.

Mr. Abbott moved the third reading of the bill.

Motion agreed to and bill read the third time and passed.

PRIVATE BILLS

CATHERINE VAUGHAN TROY CAMPBELL

Mr. H. W. Winkler (Lisgar) moved the second reading of Bill No. 16, for the relief of Catherine Vaughan Troy Campbell.

Motion agreed to and bill read the second time.

Mr. Speaker: There are a number of other divorce bills on the order paper. Would the house agree to my reading all of them at one time?

Mr. Knowles: No, Mr. Speaker. The reason I offered no objection to the one that has been passed is that that is one of the few bills in connection with which we have the evidence. We do not have the evidence for the next bill. There are two or three others on the order paper for which the evidence is in, and if the member for Lisgar (Mr. Winkler) wishes to move only those, it is all right. If he wishes to move the others, I should like the opportunity of moving the adjournment of the debate.

Mr. Winkler: The evidence for all these bills is before the house, and I believe we should proceed with them in order.

Mr. Knowles: We shall not go through that argument again. The evidence may have been tabled, but it has not been distributed. I suggest if these bills are to be called they be called one at a time.

MARY MARGARET GRAHAM

Mr. H. W. Winkler (Lisgar) moved the second reading of Bill No. 17, for the relief of Mary Margaret Graham.

[Mr. Knowles.]

Mr. Stanley Knowles (Winnipeg North Centre): I move that the debate on second reading of this bill be now adjourned.

Mr. Fulton: It has not started, how can it be adjourned?

Mr. Speaker: Is it the pleasure of the house to adopt this motion? Those in favour will please say yea.

Some hon. Members: Yea.

Mr. Speaker: Those opposed will please say nay.

Some hon. Members: Nay.

Mr. Speaker: In my opinion the nays have it.

And more than five members having risen:

Mr. Speaker: Call in the members.

The house divided on the motion (Mr. Knowles) which was negatived on the following division:
