

The Address—Mr. J. F. Browne

Some hon. Members: Hear, hear.

Mr. Martin (Essex East): That is wholly inaccurate.

Mr. Browne (Vancouver-Kingsway): By any analysis of the government's record there is no cause for fear now or in the future. By any analysis of our economy and its future prospects there is no cause for pessimism. By any analysis whatever there is every reason for all Canadians to move forward to a greater and brighter future under the brilliant leadership of the Right Hon. John G. Diefenbaker, one of the world's outstanding leaders.

On motion of Mr. Pearson the debate was adjourned.

On motion of Mr. Diefenbaker the house adjourned at 4.28 p.m.
