

Proceedings on Adjournment Motion

The Government is well aware of the importance of keeping the territorial governments abreast of things that are transpiring in Ottawa. An indication of this concern is that for the first time the territories are going to be represented, as part of the Federal delegation, at the July 19th Federal-Provincial Conference.

Motion agreed to and the House adjourned at 10.30 p.m.

---