

accepts the motion then we do not have a vote, or it can be transferred for debate. However, if there is a refusal by a minister to do anything about the motion, then it is up to the member to call for a vote if he so desires.

Mr. Speaker: If it is the desire of hon. members I shall put the motion. Is it the pleasure of the house to adopt the said motion?

Some hon. Members: Yea.

Some hon. Members: Nay.

Mr. Speaker: Does the house wish me to put the motion in a formal way?

Some hon. Members: Yes.

Mr. Speaker: All those in favour of the motion will please say yea.

Some hon. Members: Yea.

Mr. Speaker: All those opposed will please say nay.

Some hon. Members: Nay.

Mr. Speaker: In my opinion the nays have it.

And more than five members having risen:

Mr. Speaker: Call in the members.

The house divided on the motion (Mr. Forrestall) which was negated on the following division:
