The Order being read for the second reading of Bill No. C-51, An Act to amend the Customs Act;

Mr. Nowlan, seconded by Mr. Harkness, moved,—That the said Bill be now read a second time.

And a debate arising thereon;

Mr. Pearson, seconded by Mr. McIlraith, moved in amendment thereto,—That all the words after “That” be struck out and the following substituted therefor:

“this bill be not now read a second time because of new provisions for arbitrary valuations which transfer the tariff-making authority from Parliament to the Minister and the Cabinet, contrary to the principles of responsible government and the essential right of Parliament to tax.”

And the question being proposed;
