

While Professor Lefleur was in the hospital, was made solely out of consideration for other members of the department.

Lam quite satisfied with my work and find it quite sufficient to keep both hands and tongue from being idle.
For your interest and consideration I have a deep appreciation.

Faithfully yours,

G. R. Lomer.