

or perhaps Clarence Webster - but the latter already has as many Wolfe relics as he deserves.

As I am so far away, I have advised the writer of the letter to communicate with you. It will of course be necessary for her to supply evidence that the pistols are what she claims them to be.
I am at present in the country, but as soon as possible I will try to find out something about the Capt. Holland mentioned in the letter.

Yours very truly -

W.T. Waugh.

Sir Arthur Currie,
McGill University.