

- Virginia, i. 25, 32, 93, 108; Braddock arrives in, i. 111; i. 120; feels the scourge of Indian wars, i. 148; extent of British settlements in, ii. 4; exhibit a praiseworthy vigor and activity, ii. 105; refuses to furnish troops for Bouquet's expedition, ii. 220; Bouquet returns the prisoners to, ii. 256; ii. 334.
- Virginia Assembly, the, passes a vote of thanks for the services of Bouquet, ii. 257.
- Virginia frontiers, the, ii. 7, 32; compared with the Maryland frontiers, ii. 90; the storm of Indian war descends upon, ii. 92; consternation of the settlers, ii. 93; prompt measures taken for the defence of, ii. 105; Indian outrages on, ii. 125; attacked by the Delawares and Shawanoes, ii. 183; ii. 297; outrages on, ii. 316; bloody war along, ii. 324.
- Virginia militia, the, i. 103; ii. 105; joins Bouquet's expedition, ii. 220; at Fort Pitt, ii. 220, 225; at Bouquet's council with the Delawares, ii. 229; sent to the Shawanoe towns, ii. 245; the chief object of, ii. 246; ii. 305.
- Virginian backwoodsmen, the, i. 104.
- Virginian frontiersman, the, description of, ii. 88; characteristics of, ii. 89.
- Virginians, the, Braddock's expedition, i. 118; severe losses in Beaujeu's attack, i. 118; bravery of, i. 118, 119.
- Virginia settlements, the, ii. 89.
- Volney, on the Illinois colony, ii. 268.
- Voyageurs*, i. 61, 223; at Detroit, i. 303, 305, 306; i. 335, 336, 340; at Michilimackinac, i. 352, 363.
- WABASH RIVER, the, explored by the French Jesuits, i. 33; French posts on, i. 67; the Miamis on, i. 157; i. 162, 177, 287; Indian tribes on, ii. 271; French traders on, ii. 277; ii. 280; Croghan on, ii. 305; ii. 341.
- Walker, Dr., i. 115.
- "Walking purchase," the, i. 88.
- Walpole, Horace, on the characteristics of Braddock, i. 111.
- Walters, Major, in command at Fort Niagara, i. 188; letter from Campbell to, i. 188.
- Wampum, uses of, i. 195; description of, i. 195.
- Wampum belt, the significance of, i. 195; ii. 189.
- Wapocomoguth, great chief of the Mississaugas, offers a pipe of peace at Detroit, ii. 116.
- War-belts, the, among the Indians, ii. 322.
- War-chief, the Indian, functions of, i. 5; i. 200, 204.
- War-feast, the Indian, i. 205.
- Warren, Admiral Sir Peter, i. 95.
- Washashe, chief of the Pottawatamies, at the mission of St. Joseph, i. 284; treachery of, i. 284, 285.
- Washington, George, i. 9; sent by Governor Dinwiddie to protest against the French occupation of Presqu'isle, i. 102; at Venango, i. 103; received by Saint-Pierre, i. 103; his return, i. 104; fortifies himself on the Monongahela, i. 104; Jumonville sent against, i. 104; surprises and captures the French