"William O. Stoddard has written capital books for boys. His 'Dab Kinzer,' and 'The Quartet,' are among the best specimens of 'Juveniles' produced anywhere. In his latest volume, 'Winter Fun,' Mr. Stoddard gives free rein to his remarkable gift of story telling for boys. It is a connected tale of winter life in the country, in which a party of bright lads extract their fun from hunting rabbits, trapping bears, snow-balling, coasting, skating, making maple sugar, and leading a semi-wild life in the woods and fields part of the time. They are good boys, too, and neglect none of their home duties while furnishing the materials for this entertaining book. Healthful works of this kind cannot be too freely distributed among the little men of America as a counterpoise to the pernicious literature too often provided for them."—Journal of Commerce.
