

I N D E X

	Page
Nelson, goes to sea with Button	345
River	ibid.
Neome, the Island of	197, 207
Nerigon	30
Nestorians, among the Moguls	105
Their religion and mode of writing	ibid.
Monuments of them in the town of Sigan	108
Their Manners	109, 129, 136
Newfoundland, by whom first discovered	83, 204
Discovered afterwards by the Cabots	267
Its fishery and produce of the country	291, 294
The same as Winland	439
New France	430
New Walchern	414
New Wales, so called by Fox	365
New Wales, thus named by Button	347
North, the, must have been inhabited later than other regions	1
Why the ancients have given such imperfect accounts of it	43
Of Europe and Asia, troubles there	89
Observations upon	483
Normandy, when and by whom first named	79
Normans, their navigations	49
Were in some measure civilized by Christianity	52
At an early period knew how to sail near the wind	75
Cause of their adventurous spirit at sea	77
Northmannaland described by Ohther	65
Norway, vid. Nerigon
Nova Scotia	290
Nova Zembla	327
Novogrod, its origin	50
Enlargement	78
Inhabitants	175
Nurumbega	436
O.
Obotrites, the place of their residence ascertained	57
Oetopar	150
Oderic of Portenau, his birth-place and travels	147
Oeland, vid. Eowland	70
Ohther, his country	53, 62
Wealth	47, 64
Travels	62, 76
Okathai Khan	94
Olaf Tryggesson, King of Norway	87
	Olt rare,