No. 126 James Street North,

The great Dramatist Sardou has never written a play that has been more enthusiastically received by the press than his "Diplomacy," which will be the attractive bill Rose and Charles Coghlan will offer the public on the evening of Monday, April 22nd.

This play has always been one of the most popular, and wherever it has been played it has attracted widespread attention. The play was first produced in this country at Wallack's theatre, a number of years ago, and the part of the Countess Zick which Miss Coghlan will assume on this occasion, was played by her at that time.
