

V. C O N T E N T S.

Bad consequences of the loss of Oswego	85
A full account of the Indians, their manner of living, fighting, &c.	87
Advantage of the English in maintaining friendship with them	91
Their complaints against the fraudulent dealings of the traders	92
Methods suggested for removing these complaints	94

II. ACCOUNT of the BRITISH SETTLEMENT in N. AMERICA.

Description of New-England, its soil, produce, trade, &c.	95
———— of New-York, &c.	96
———— of Pennsylvania, &c.	97
———— of Maryland, &c.	99
———— of Virginia, &c.	100
———— of Carolina, &c.	101
———— of Nova Scotia, &c.	102
———— of Canada, &c.	ib
The embarkation at Quebec for England	103

III. A Discourse on KIDNAPPING.

The author's arrival at Aberdeen in quest of his relations	105
Prosecution of the Magistrates against him	ib
His books seized and burnt by the hangman	106
Put in confinement till he subscribed a recantation	ib
The Magistrates judge in their own complaint	107
Improbability that they could be ignorant of the practice of Kidnapping	107-8
Proof of that practice by a cloud of Witnesses	109
Deposition of Alexander King	ib
———— of John Wilson	ib
———— of Francis Fraser, Esq;	110
———— of Robert Reid	111
Deposition	