Boxing 15 Bouts Decided : Turf Horses Stepping On Opening Night : Turf Along at Woodbine

WEEDING OUT IN PRELIMINARIES

Opening Bouts of Canadian Boxing Championships.

The usual weeding out process took place on preliminary night of the Canadian amateur boxing championships in the Arena. The draw was made at the ring side and the same will be the order for the semi-finals tonight, and the final bouts on Saturday night. The boys were willing on opening night. The most stirvision, when Mose of Hamilton cam back in the last round and stopped Tay lor, a local Hebrew lad. The bouts were put on promptly and the crowd was well pleased tain raiser. Williams had things all his own way and stopped his man in the third.

Dixon of Aurora and Albert of Newsboys met in the second bout. Neither boy showed any great knowledge of the game, but they made up for their lack of cleverness by their earnestness. Albert was the best slugger, and won by a good margin.

O'Neil of Riversides had no difficulty whatever with White of Hamilton. White went down twice in the first two minutes and the bout was stopped.

115-1b. Class.

Murton of Riversides and Lemond of Hamilton put up a whirlwind bout. The Hamilton boy out-slugged Murton, but the Riverside boy used a left jab most effectively and earned a close decision.

Brown and Price, both of the Riversides, put up an interesting bout. Brown put his man down for the count in the second, but Price came back strong. Brown got a well-earned decision.

Arnell of Hamilton shapes up like a good one. He put it all over Lavery of Kingston were another pair of wild swingers. Frankel was the aggressor 2nd won all the way.

Altken, Riversides, put it all over Carlaw, the Buffalo city champion, for the first couple of minutes, but a right to the jaw sent him to the corner for a rest. Carlaw then took the lead and put his man out in the third with a right to the jaw.

W. Frankel of the Newsboys, althohandicapped with a sore hand, had no difficulty in getting the decision over his

St. Mary's, with Norman Kelly on the mound, will look very sweet on Saturday, and barring one innings, when Brown weakened, had St. Andrew's lashed to the mast. Kelly will have to be in tip-top form to withstand the heavy bombardment of St. Pat's. Geo. Anderson will twirl for St. Pat's. and hits off him are expected to be mighty scarce. At 4 p.m. St. Andrews and Judeans will have a battle royal. The Saints are bountifully supplied with surplus players, and should any of the regulars be off their game, plenty of ginger can be injected into the game by the bench warmers. Lefty Farr will shoot them to Newsome for the Saints, while Flude or Sandow will work for Judeans with Pennock behind the bat. The latter looks to be a mighty classy performer this season.

St. Josephs Club will practice tonigh at 6 p.m. on the Don Flats (east side) All players are requested to attend this practice so as to be ready for their game with Eatons Saturday.

HEDGE TRIMMER OPERATED BY

A machine for trimming hedges ha een invented which carries an electric ctor. The operator passes the immer over the surface to be shorn after the manner of a horse clipper The machine is built of aluminum with a casing containing the motor. The gear case is completely inclosed so that no dirt can enter the mechanism, and the trimmer is arranged to be used on either side of the hedge, cutting top and sides equally well. The power is controlled by a switch on the handle, operated by the thumb.

AN ELECTRIC-LIGHTED SHAVING GLASS.
