GREAT TREK ON TO GOLD FIELD

Rush of Prospectors in Full
Swing to New Discovery.

MANY CLAIMS STAKED
Cochrane and Northern Towns.

When the World's story of King Dodo's find was first made public, these men constitute the greatest and keenest army of explorers the world ever knew, and the alacrity with which they can move, the almost uncanny knowledge they have of prospecting and of minerals and of their occurrence, and the unprecedented railroad facilities to aid in concentration and quick movement outcared anything in the past in interest and success so far. There never was such a keen army as the Timiskaming explorers.

More Samples Produced.
Fresh samples of ore from the Kowkash gold discovery have been brought in to Cobalt, Porcupine and Halleybury, and the greatest gold rush in the world is on. Special trains were run today from Porcupine to Kowkash, the nearest station to the new gold fields, and they were crowded with prospectors. Porcupine was deserted on Sunday. Cobalt is being deserted, and during the past two days hundreds of men have left the town. Twenty odd claims have been staked in the new field, in addition to the four original claims.

No canoes are to be had on the line of the T. & N. O. or the National Transcontinental. Every available kind of craft has been taken, and hundreds of men are on their way into the new gold fields by every imaginable kind of canoe. Old canoes are being mended and tied together in the hope that they will hold together long enough to carry eager prospectors into the Kowkash district. One prospector, seen at Cobalt station, admitted that he had left his wife in tears because he had torn up an old canoe which formed a decoration of her flower garden and fitted it out for service again. Indians at Hearst are doing a rushing business selling birch bark canoes and it is no exaggeration whatever to say that the whole north country is red hot with excitement. There is now no doubt that the rush exceeds in the number taking part and in the quickness of action any previous stampede that even this excitable country has known. A number of section men on the Transcontinental Railway have jumped their jobs and started in overland. There is no trail thru the woods yet and a rescue party will probably have to search for them.

Everybody is going.
Bookkeepers and men who have never staked a claim in their lives, have gone in to win a fortune; in fact, almost every man who is able to go to Kowkash has hit the trail, and those who were not able to go have grub-staked those who could. There will be enough men in Kowkash by the middle of this month to stake 2000 claims.

The news of the new fields have already spread to the States, and trains from Detroit hitherward, a distance of 1000 miles, were organized on Sunday. Business has become so great that the Transcontinental Railway has elevated the Kowkash train station to a telegraph office.

SOCIETY

Conducted by Mrs. Edmund Phillips.

Mrs. James McGlashan announces the engagement of her daughter, Hazel Augusta, to Lieut. Herbert Elder Rooney of the 88th Battalion, C.E.F., youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Lawrence Rooney. The marriage to take place quietly the latter part of September.

On Saturday the marriage of Milda, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Kohler, 327 Palmerston boulevard, to Mr. George S. Ingram, Toronto, was quietly solemnized at the Western Congregational Church, Spadina avenue, Rev. James W. Pedley officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Dunbar have returned from Nova Scotia, having spent the last three weeks by the sea.

On Sept. 2, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Garratt, Palmerston avenue, the marriage was solemnized of their only daughter, Milda K. to Mr. J. Webster Honeysett, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. James S. Honeysett, Glen-side, Pa., formerly of Toronto, the Rev. J. Wesley Magwood officiating. The wedding march was played by Miss Irene Jinks. The bride, given away by her father, wore a white net gown and tulle veil and orange blossoms. She was attended by Miss Lorna Ross, who was in shell pink crepe de chine. The groom was attended by his brother, W. Fraser Honeysett. After the ceremony a reception was held, the bride's mother wearing black silk crepe and white chiffon, and the groom's mother wore soft duchesse satin with French trimmings. After breakfast the bride and groom left for the States, the bride wearing a smart black French hat, navy blue suit and white fox fur. Mr. and Mrs. Honeysett will live in Glenide, a suburb of Philadelphia.

Friday afternoon a presentation was made at the office of the Ontario Press of a wrist watch to each of the following employees of that firm, who have enlisted for service with the York Mills, Toronto, and left for Kingston this morning: Harry Heffer, Trent A. Hutchinson, Sidney Parker, William Self. This makes six of the employees of the Ontario Press who have resigned permanent positions in order to join the colors.

A very pretty wedding was celebrated in St. Michael's Church, Belleville, Ont., on Wednesday morning, Aug. 26, the bride being Mary (Mae) McCaully of Belleville, and the groom Michael Joseph McCaully of Toronto. The bride was given away by her father and wore a white satin gown trimmed with Irish lace and pearls and a bridal veil with wreath of orange blossoms, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lily of the valley. Miss Kate McCaully was her only attendant, daintily gowned in pink silk and carried pink and white roses. Mr. Alex McCaully acted as best man. After the celebration of nuptial mass the bridal party repaired to the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. McCaully, Jones street, where a dainty wedding breakfast was served, leaving later for Toronto, where a reception was held at the home of the groom's parents, 143 Shaw street. After the wedding trip to Hamilton, Niagara Falls and Buffalo, they will reside in this city.
