MCUTCHEON BROS.

WERE ARRAIGNED

Three Facing Charges of Conspiracy to Defraud Did Not Plead.

LACK OF PARTICULARS

Postponement Asked Because of Inability to Prepare Defence.

Three of the McCutcheon Bros. real estate firm who are facing charges of conspiracy to defraud were arraigned in the criminal assizes yesterday and allowed until Thursday to enter their pleas of guilty or not guilty. They are Gordon S. McCutcheon, David S.
McCutcheon and Clarence M. Mc-Cutcheon. At the instance of the N. F.
Davidson, T.C., their bail was increased from $10,000 to $15,000 each.

I. F. Hellmuth, K. C., and A. J.
Russell Snow, K. C., applied for a postponement of trial on the ground of lack of particulars in the indictments, which prevented a proper defence being prepared, it being impossible to obtain witnesses from England and Montana for this assizes. Mr.
Davidson in reply intimated that he wished to use as evidence the statements made to English investors, to which Mr. Hellmuth objected, contending that it would be suicide for the defendants to proceed with the trial without evidence of the members of the English syndicate. This issue must be made clear by Thursday.

Ten or twelve witnesses for the defence are required, from Montana, among them Senator Gibson.

Remains arriving in Toronto Thursday evening. Funeral (private) from

Special Committee Will Examine Board of Education Bookkeeping.

As a sequel to Trustee Vokes accounting in the methods of accounting at the board of education office a sub-committee of the financial committee will make a report upon any changes which they may think advisable. The sub-committee is composed of the chairman of the board, Trustee Hodgson; chairman of finance, Trustee C. A. B. Brown; Trustee Miles Vokes, who is chairman of the property committee.

Trustee Vokes has made no charges of laxity, but he has had to O.K. several hundred thousand dollars' worth of work and wants every possible precaution taken against many payments.
City Auditor Sterling has the board of education accounts audited regularly and his report is that they are very well kept, but that Secretary-Treasurer Wilkinson's staff is underranned and in consequence the books are "a little out of order."

The sub-committee may recommend an addition to the staff.
