

stand shoulder to shoulder against the German brigands and murderers, to continue the struggle whatever may be their sacrifices in blood and treasure, until all possible human reparation for the crime and adequate security for the future are achieved. Canada must be prepared. Canada is prepared to contribute its full share to the accomplishment of this end and thus help to secure the best hopes of humanity.

"For the realization of their hopes", as Mr. Asquith only a few days ago eloquently said, "the Allies have given, are giving, without stint, without regret, as the price by which the World will purchase and surely hold in the years to come, protection for the weak, supremacy of right over force, free development, under equal conditions, and each in accordance with its own genius, of all the states, great or small, which build up the family of civilized mankind".
