

that colony would be acceptable to the publick.

And I shall, for method-sake, proceed in my account of it in the following order :

First, Give some account of its inhabitants ;

Secondly, Of its extent and soil ;

Thirdly, Of its growth and progress ;

Fourthly, Shew of what great importance it is to preserve it from falling into the hands of the French;
And,