

Supply of Food. — Distressing Condition of Mr. McLeod. — Return of Mr. King's Party. — News from York Factory. — Uncertain Fate of Augustus. — Presence of Two Ravens. — Ravens shot by an Iroquois. — News from England. — Discharge of Three Men. — Alteration of Plans. — Appearance of Birds. — Adventures by Mr. King. — Arrival of Mr. McLeod. — Anxiety about Williamson. — Sultry Weather. — Melancholy Fate of Augustus	Page 231
--	----------

CHAP. IX.

Reflections. — Halt for the Night. — March resumed. — Obstacles encountered. — The Boats finished. — Eastern Shore of Artillery Lake. — Pursue the Track of Mr. McLeod. — Two Deer shot. — Stunted Pines. — Encampment. — Difficulty in tracing our Route. — News from Mr. McLeod. — A Snow Storm. — Fires lighted on the Hills. — Accident to Peter Taylor. — Deviate from our Course. — Accident to James Spence. — Boisterous Weather. — Plunder of a Cache. — Find the runaway Guides. — The Ice unsafe. — Enter upon Lake Aylmer. — A dense Fog. — Sand-hill Bay. — Judicial Investigation. — Animals. — Musk-ox Rapid. — Join Mr. McLeod. — Survey of the River. — Indians return with the Pemnican. — Stock of Provisions. — An Indian Belle. — A Reindeer Hunt	256
--	-----

CHAP. X.

Instructions to Mr. McLeod upon our Separation. — Meet with Akaitcho. — His Lodge. — Imminent Danger to the Boat. — Akaitcho's friendly Caution. — Embarkation. — Heavy Storms. — Our Crew. — Geological Features of the Country. — Obstructions from the Ice. — Perils from a Series of Rapids. — Plunder of a Bag of Pemnican. — Obstacles on our Passage. — Boisterous Weather. — Deer hunting. — Observations. — Deviation of the River. —
--