

Chateaugay	Page 93
Chrysler's Farm	93
Barbarous Warfare	93
The War in 1814	94
British Successes	94
Lundy's Lane	95
Capture of Washington	95
Plattsburg and New Orleans	95
Treaty of Ghent	95
Effects of the War	95
Questions	96

CHAPTER XVIII.

PROGRESS AND AGITATION.

War Debts paid	97
New Colonists	97
The Miramichi Fire	97
Agriculture	97
Education	97
Trade and Travel	98
The Royal William	99
Roman Catholics admitted to the Assembly in Nova Scotia	99
Political Agitation	99
The Clergy Reserves	100
Lower Canada	100
Prince Edward Island	100
Questions	101

CHAPTER XIX.

AGITATION AND REBELLION.

Joseph Howe	102
New Brunswick	103
Lemuel Allan Wilmot	103
Disputed Territory	104
Upper Canada	104
Rebellion	105
Navy Island	105
End of Rebellion in Upper Canada	105
Lower Canada	105
Rebellion in Lower Canada	106
The Earl of Durham	106
Rebels pardoned	107
Questions	107

CHAPTER XX.

RESPONSIBLE GOVERNMENT.

Union of Upper and Lower Canada	108
Lord Elgin	108

Rebellion Losses	Page 108
Nova Scotia	109
Responsible Government	109
New Brunswick	110
Responsible Government in New Brunswick	110
Prince Edward Island	110
Questions	111

CHAPTER XXI.

THE DAWN OF THE RAILWAY AGE.

Steamers and Railways	113
Postage Stamps	113
The Reciprocity Treaty	113
Education	114
Clergy Reserves	114
Feudal System broken up	114
Minerals of Nova Scotia	114
Visit of the Prince of Wales	114
War in the United States	115
Prince Edward Island	115
Fenian Raids	115
Questions	116

CHAPTER XXII.

THE LANDS OF THE FUR TRADERS.

The North-West Fur Company	117
Alexander Mackenzie	117
Cook and Vancouver	118
Red River Settlement	118
Union of the Two Companies	118
The Boundary settled	118
A Colony on Vancouver	118
The Discovery of Gold in British Columbia	119
British Columbia a Crown Colony	119
Questions	120

CHAPTER XXIII.

CONFEDERATION.

Difficulties	121
Liberals and Conservatives work together	121
The Charlottetown Convention	122
The Quebec Convention	122
The Union Scheme in the different Provinces	122