AMERICAN SOLDIERS

Units of U. S. Army Hold First Parade in Streets of Metropolis.

Pleased in Streets of Metropolis.

Pleased With Appearance of American national army men on parade in the streets of London, May 12.—The appearance of American national army men on parade in the streets of London, May 12.—The appearance of American national army men on parade in the streets of London yesterday aroused the enthusiasm of the Sunday papera as have few events in many months. The writers unite in giving unstituted praise to the appearance of the men, and predict for them a record of splendid achievement when they reach the front. "Londoners cheered for Many months," says "United their of them a record of splendid achievement when they reach the front. "Londoners cheered for Many months," says "Cheered for Many months," says "The month when the first battalion detrained to the last minute farewell when the crowd called out. Or affect the streets of London years as a special welcome. "God bless yout. "When the first battalion detrained to the last minute farewell when the crowd called out to a friend that they were 'A real husky lot." The word pleased the fancy of the watting crowds found a new name for the visitors. As the first battalion swung out from Waterloot station somoone called out to a friend that they were 'A real husky lot." The word pleased the fancy of the crowd, and soon everyone was calling at $25.0 per lost, it is a special welcome backets." It was deep the product of the last when the visitors and good-bye for the clime being to London."

"Tinely built, clean looking troops," says The Sunday Herald, "they made an excellent impression. Everywhere the search who was supposed the American boys who have concerned and the watting crowds found a new name for the visitors and good-bye for the clime being to London."

Montreal Produce Market

Montreal, May 12.—The local market for cash oats has been weak the past few days as a result of the decline in Winnipeg futures and the encouraging character of the growing crop, and in a week prices were reduced from 7c to 10c a bushel compared with the week before last. The demand yesterday was dull. There was no change in the prices of any grade of flour last week, and prices yesterday ruled the same as on the previous Saturday.

Eggs were advanced 1c per dozen last week in a wholesale jobbing way, the receipts having fallen off, Egg receipts in Montreal last week showed a decrease of 4710 cases, as compared with the previous week's receipts. The domestic consumption continues large. Egg receipts was a second with the previous week's receipts.

or 4710 cases, as compared with the previous week's receipts. The domestic consumption continues large. Egg receipts yesterday were 2444 cases, against 3223 on the previous Saturday.

The market for butter closed the week strong, due to some extent to the fact that the dairy produce commission was in the market for supplies for export account, and bought from 200 to 300 packages of finest creamery at 42c per pound. The receipts yesterday were 1673 packages, against 932 for the previous Saturday.

There was no change in the condition of the cheese market, except that the supply increased, Receipts yesterday were 2124 boxes, compared with 1444 a week

ST. LAWRENCE AND NORTH TO-RONTO MARKETS.

There was the usual heavy attendance at both markets Saturday with a greatly increased supply of green vegetables and plants, both vegetable and floral, as well as cut flowers.

Eggs—New-laid eggs again sold well and the bulk brought 42c to 45c per dozen with a few going at 40c per dozen; duck eggs selling at 70c to 75c per dozen.

Butter—Butter was a slow sale, chiefly because the bulk of the prices asked were rather high for the way butter has been declining on the wholesales the past two weeks; a very small quantity again bringing 60c and 57c per lb.; quite a lot going at 52c to 55c per lb.

Petatoes—Choice quality potatoes sold at $1.75 per bag, tho $1.85 was obtained for some of the same lot on the way down to market, from retail stores, $1.90 and $1.65 per bag also being obtained on the market.
