MANITOBA REMEDIAL BILL

Will Be Brought Down on Monday or Tuesday Next.

THE MINISTER OF JUSTICE GIVES NOTICE

The Only Reliable Forecast of the Much-Talked-of and Long-Delayed Measure Was That Printed in the World—What the Provisions of the Proposed Bill Are—No Semblance of Coercion—The Law, When in Force, Will Not Disturb Materially the Existing State of Affairs as Regards Education in Manitoba—The Practical Provisions—How the Vote Sized Up.

Ottawa, Feb. 7.—In the Senate this afternoon, Sir Mackenzie Bowell introduced the Remedial Bill which would be brought down either on Monday or Tuesday of next week, and to-night Mr. Dickey, in his capacity as Minister of Justice, gives notice of the measure which is to be introduced, "The Remedial Act (Manitoba)."

There have been many attempts to forecast the scope of the measure, but the only reliable one which has hitherto appeared is that published in the World at several days ago. Your correspondent is now in a position to indicate to a somewhat fuller degree the nature of the proposed bill which is soon to become law. In drafting the Privy Council has been careful to avoid anything calculated to stir up animosity on the part of the people, whether it partakes of a religious character or assumes the broader and higher ground of non-interference with provincial authority.

Forecast of the Bill.
Starting out with the recognition of the principle that the Catholics of Manitoba have a just grievance which any reasonably minded man, even although he may be the advocate of one common school system for Canada, must admit, and which should be remedied—the bill proposes to restore to the Catholics of Manitoba their educational rights by permitting them to establish separate schools. At the same time in no manner or form will the bill be found to encroach upon the cherished principle of provincial autonomy or contain any provision bearing the semblance of coercion. The measure assumes that the Provincial Government will accept the law once it is passed, hence an alternative course is not supplied. Should, however, the provincial authorities fail to give effect to the provisions of the bill, it is obvious that subsequent legislation will be required.

What it Means.
It is gratifying to learn that the law when it goes into effect is not likely to disturb in any material extent the existing state of affairs as regards education in Manitoba. West of the Red River, according to the statistics in the possession of the Government, not more than 10 or 12 Catholic schools exist, and no separate schools are to be created, and in no case will the boundaries of the school districts be co-terminous with those of public schools. To Winnipeg and St. Boniface and to a few scattered settlements on the east bank of the Red River, the measure will principally apply.

The measure will rectify in the preamble the reasons which have induced the Dominion Parliament to pass legislation of this character and will declare it expedient to do so. The title of the bill is, as already stated, "The Remedial Act (Manitoba)."

Provincial Authorities.
The provincial authorities are authorized to appoint a Catholic Board of Education for the province, consisting of not more than nine persons, who must be Roman Catholics, three of whom shall be annually elected by the people. This board will be charged with many duties, chief among which are the control and management of separate schools; the selection of text books; the issuing of teachers' certificates; but it is specifically enjoined on the board that the text books must be equal to those used in the public schools, and that the teachers themselves are not to be inferior in attainments to those who have passed through the provincial normal schools and are employed in the public schools.

A.S.S. Superintendent.
A superintendent of separate schools is to be appointed by the provincial authorities, who will have the general supervision and direction of the Catholic schools. Failing action on the part of the province, this superintendent will be appointed by the Dominion.

Separate school districts may be created on the petition of ten heads of families who are Catholics and who pledge themselves to a certain amount of financial support to the school each year. Where a municipality fails to organize a Catholic school district, power will devolve on the Board of Education.

In the event of the Municipal Council failing to collect the separate school taxes, power is given to the Catholic Board of Education.

Taxation Not Compulsory.
No Roman Catholic will be taxed for the support of a separate school if he notifies the municipal authorities that he desires his taxes to go to the public schools, but his responsibility to pay Catholic school taxes will remain until the day of declaration of his desire to support the public schools.

In cases where Roman Catholics predominate in any school district and Protestant children have to attend these schools, provision is made for due regard to the wishes of parents in the matter of allowing those children to remain away from Catholic religious exercises.

Inspectors of separate schools may be appointed, and in the event of any school refusing to remain under provincial control, the provincial government may be withdrawn. There is no provision in the bill for striking provincial schools, but it is granted that a provincial grant will be made to the Catholic schools as to the other schools.

NEWS FROM A SISTER CITY

ERECION OF THE FORESTERS' TEMPLE IS ENDORSED

By the Order in Hamilton After the Supreme Chief Forester's Personal Exhortation to Erect a Temple to the Foresters' Order.

Hamilton, Ont., Feb. 7.—Dr. Oronhyatechea, Supreme Chief Forester of the Independent Order of Foresters, addressed a largely attended meeting of Foresters in the city last night, his object being to pour oil upon the troubled waters, and the brilliant eloquence of the Supreme Chief was not expended idly, for before his left a resolution of thanks was passed to him.

He justified his course in the management of the Order, and in reference to the temple which is not large enough. The original estimate of the building was $55,000, but the Supreme Court had increased it to $25,000. The property was purchased in the name of the Chief Forester's private secretary, and had been given to the Order for 20 years.

Is Rescue in Toronto?
Fred Rogers, alias Fred Lange, who is wanted in Rochester for sheep and pig stealing, is supposed to have gone to Toronto. The police were after him. Word, who is about 30 years old, short and stout, with black hair and moustache, has a foreign accent, and for some weeks worked on the bridge at the Beach. Under Sheriff Vick, who is in charge of his man-to-day, he is wanted for stealing a load of dressed pork, a team of horses and a cow, which he was in Rochester last November, also on charges of sheep stealing and other offences.

Horribly Burned.
August Pazel, 79 Poulter-street, was horribly burned at the rolling mills last night. He was in the mill when a fire started from the blast furnaces, while emptying one load it exploded when it came in contact with the snow. Scalding water and other things were thrown over his hands and face. He rolled himself in the snow, and was conveyed to his home, where Dr. Rogers is attending him.

Plague of Vagrants.
The city is being swarmed with an army of vagrants, who live by what they can get from pedestrians. It is approached and asked for assistance, and the habit has become so prevalent that the police have decided to remove them from the streets.

Does He Ever Sleep?
Inspector Stephens says an alleged gambler in a cigar store in Yonge-street Arcade early this morning. He is a young man, some of them well-known gamblers, others holding good positions in the city, sitting around the table, and the money was being taken from them. It is likely Police cases will arise from the inspector's visit.

Whether It is or Not Men Are Certainly Out for New Hats.
The bright sunshine of yesterday afternoon would seem to have begotten in the public mind the idea that spring is coming. Certes, it is drawing near. The days are getting longer and the sun is sending more light after the weeks of travail and storm. All this is very poetic, no doubt, but it also begets practical ideas. The merchant calculates "How can I turn this to account?" That was what Dineen was saying to himself yesterday. He reflected that in winter like this a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of new hats.

He therefore is going to open up a store for the sale of hats. He has an advance shipment of the latest styles in men's hats. Several cases from world-famous manufacturers arrived yesterday and in the morning porter who inspected them was surprised to find that they were certainly to be shared by any young man in Toronto.

Gentlemen who desire to see the latest blocks of the best English and American manufacturers should not neglect this opportunity. The offers to-day are:

English stiff hats at $2.50 and $3. English fedoras $2 and $2.50. English silk hats $4 and $5. Heath's silk hats $7.50. Heath's felt hats, soft or stiff, at $4.50.

A large line of odd sizes, which were selling at $2.50 and $3, will be cleared out at $1 and $1.50.

REFUTES THE CHARGE.

Mr. Charles Tupper Did Not Ask Support From Any Priest or Clergyman in Cape Breton.

Halifax, N.S., Feb. 7.—In reply to the charge that Mr. Charles Tupper had asked for support from any priest or clergyman in Cape Breton, the Dominion newspaper has published a long and detailed article refuting the charge.

A MYSTERIOUS DEATH.
WARDER JAMES HEALEY WILL EVIDENTLY ATTEMPT TO SHOW THAT HE HAD TO KILL JOHN CORRIGAN.

Self-defence will evidently be the plea of James Healey, who is charged with murdering John Corrigan on Wednesday night. From the evidence already taken at the inquest it is apparent the defence will try to prove that Corrigan, armed with a revolver, forcibly entered Healey's apartments.

At the adjourned inquest last night Healey testified that he was in his room on Wednesday night when he heard a noise and went to see what was going on. He found Corrigan in his room, and he shot him.

On Monday morning he arrived at the hotel with his valet, a young man named R. P. Wright, and registered as A. H. James of Boston. He took rooms for himself and his companion, but did not take his name. He was in the hotel on Wednesday night when he heard the noise and went to see what was going on.

On Thursday morning he instructed Wright to telephone for his physician in Philadelphia. In the afternoon his condition became alarming, but he still refused to see a doctor. About 6 o'clock, however, Dr. Cooke of 202 Simcoe-street was called, but Rittler died before his arrival.

GRAND TRUNK SHAKE UP.

MR. W. WAINWRIGHT'S POSITION HAS BEEN ABOLISHED.

But This Well-Known Official Has Been Provided for if He Desires to Remain with the Company—Mr. Wainwright's Retirement is Certain, Notwithstanding the Denial—Mr. Hays on His Way West.

Montreal, Feb. 7.—The Grand Trunk Railway will soon be turned upside down. The position of assistant general manager, so long occupied by Mr. William Wainwright, has been abolished. The friends of that popular official will be glad to hear, however, that he has been invited by Mr. Hays, the general manager, to continue in the service of the company. He has been long and so faithfully served. The official notice states that Mr. Wainwright's future position will soon be defined, and consequently the future of the new general manager, who will be a good service as Mr. Wainwright, although the statement may not be deemed to be a very satisfactory one, that Mr. Wainwright, mechanical superintendent will soon retire, as well as Mr. Wainwright, who has been connected with Mr. Wainwright's office.

This morning Mr. Hays and Mr. McGowan, who is president of the Grand Trunk, left for Toronto, to inspect the private car service, for a tour of inspection will go, and will probably go as far as Detroit. Mr. Hays took with him a number of his assistants, and will be back his decision to-night or tomorrow.

Later—"All bids rejected." Was the despatch sent back by General Manager Hays this evening to the coal owners, and consequently the bids left in droves to their respective homes by the night trains. It is, of course, not known when the Grand Trunk coal matter will be again taken up, but it is surmised that Mr. Hays was under the impression that he had made a combine in the way of prices.

Montreal Politics.
There was a grand public demonstration to-day at the St. Lawrence Hall, when arrangements were made for a demonstration to-morrow evening at the Windsor Hotel. The speakers were Sir Charles Tupper, Hon. George A. Drummond, and Mr. Wainwright.

Mr. Wainwright has written a letter to Mr. Paucard, expressing regret that Mr. Paucard should have so violently attacked the clergy following the election in Charlevoix.

RECOMMENDATIONS FROM THE CANADIAN PRESS ASSOCIATION.
