called her blackguard and a "bad woman." meaning thereby a "prostitute," but the defendant denies the words used and says he called her a quarrelsome bad woman, and says there was not the slightest intention of imputing unchastity. The defendant seeks security for costs under 52 Vic. (0), ch. 14, sec. 8. Judgment was reserved.

MR. HODGINS SWORN IN.

A most impressive ceremony was the swearing in of Mr. Thomas Hodgins, Q.C., Master in Ordinary, as drainage referee, before the Divisional Court at Osgoode Hall yesterday. Mr. Hodgins took his seat upon the bench with the Chancellor and Mr. Justice Meredith, and all in the controom rose while a commission from the Lieutenant-Governor, appointing, him "in the room and stead of Byron Moffatt Britton," was monotoned by the Registrar. The learned master then recited an oath, swearing to do his duty without fear; favor, or partiality, and also, as it appeared, without salary, for his appointment is really only an acting one, good till a permanent officer is appointed. Mr. Matthew Wilson, Q.C., of Chatham, the "Goyen" of the drainage bar, was most appropriately present in court during the brief but imposing solemnity.

ace Toronto's Market Feet Market Abolished Have the Roads Gone Out of the County's Hands?

Solicitor Caswell's notification to the The Buying Reported Good and Furifferent municipalities of the county that the bylaw abolishing market fees had been formally ratified has started a regular rebellion throughout York against the tollgates. Messrs. Bull and Werritt, legal advisers for York Township, have expressed their opinion that the passing of the bylaw took the roads out of the hands of the county, and on the strength of this numbers of travelers since Saturday evening have refused to pay toll. It is the same all over the county, and the gate-keepers are in despair. They have decided to make an arrest of some one refusing to pay and bring him into court as a test case. Unless the Metropolitan road is in running order to Richmond Hill by the 20th of next month, it is claimed that the movement now inaugurated will affect its interests materially. a regular rebellion throughout York Business Light in Japan. Tacoma, Wash., Oct. 12.—The Tacoma, from Yokohoma, brought news that this season's exportations have aggregated scarcely half of those of last year. "The demand has been light, owing to the unsettled business conditions. Just now the demand is increasing, but exportations will be delayed for some time because the floods have interrupted shipments of tea from the interior to Yokohoma.

The market puzzled the talent to-day. The enormous selling by the principal local speculative holders in the face of an advancing market did not have its expected effect. The amouncement that the buil leaders had turned apparently did not materially change the situation. The market has broadened out beyond individual influences and has ceased to be under the control of local operators. Foreign buying and foreign necessities continue to furnish the inspiration to purchasers.
